"Wake up, you who sleep!
Rise from the dead, and Christ will give you Light.»
(Ephesians 5:14)

WHAT IS THE APOSTASY?

2 Thessalonians 2:3 NASB

3 Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day [ The Second Coming of Christ] will not come, unless the apostasy* comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction,»

* meaning: rebellion, falling away ( of the “church” or a believer from the truths of the Word of God as originally intended to be understood) into believing lies and error, false teachings, doctrines of men and demons)

Just because the Apostasy has come does not mean that we have to participate in it. In most churches it is not even recognized, is unmentioned, and almost never preached about from the pulpits. When is the last time you heard a sermon on apostasy and the need to get our doctrine straight? How do we get the victory over apostasy ? Answer: 1) Before reading or hearing anything of another person’s doctrines or teachings, yield to the Holy Spirit and ask for confirmation of what is being taught, spoken, or written; 2) Ask the Holy Spirit to confirm what you are reading as verifiable truths of the Word of God; 3) Let Scripture interpret Scripture; 4) Trust on Christ that you will not be deceived by what you read or hear, and be in-the-Spirit by yielding to Him and asking for a confirmatory witness of what you are reading or hearing; 5) Be baptized in the Holy Spirit and receive the gifts of The Spirit ( Acts 1:8; Acts 8:14-17; Lk.11:10-13) 6) When the Holy Spirit is confirming truths of what is being said to you in what you read or hear, there will be a gift of the Spirit operational, usually “Word of Knowledge” (Discernment), and a fruit of the Spirit (Peace-in your spirit-man (intuition and conscience), not peace of mind (soul ) See John 3:6).

RESTORING THE TRUE GOSPEL OF THE EARLY CHURCH OF CHRIST

1 Timothy 4:10 The True Gospel of Christ

“10 For this is why we labor and strive, because we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers.”

Ask yourself this question: Do you believe that Christ saves ALL people in His time? If you don't believe this verse, you don't believe all of the Bible, you just believe some of it. In this one verse, The Holy Spirit through Paul is saying that if Christ is not the Savior of All, He is not the Savior at all! This is Paul preaching what the early church knew, understood, and preached as the true Gospel of Salvation, “The Good News”.

DISPELLING APOSTATE TEACHINGS AND DOCTRINES

ON THE DOCTRINE OF HELL AND CONDEMNATION

Think! If only one person is in “Hell,” then how can Christ save everyone? Matthew 25:41 says that “Hell” is prepared, intended for “The Devil and his angels.” There is no mention of men or sinners. I want to confirm to you that the word, “Hell” does not exist in the original manuscripts of the Greek of the New Testament or the Hebrew of the Old Testament from which the translations of the Bible are made. Here are the meanings of the words translated as “Hell”:

In the Old Testament: there is only one word, “Sheol”, translated as “Hell”. It is translated 16 times as “hell”, 16 times as “the tomb”, and one time as “the Pit”. Which is it?. The answer is that it is none of these things. The correct meaning is “The State of Death” or “The Unseen”, a part of which was the bosom of Abraham where Satan could not touch the believers of the Old Testament, before Christ descended to them to give them the Gospel and to escort them to Paradise.

In the New Testament: There are 3 words translated as “Hell”:

1. “Hades” in 10 verses of which none means “Hell”. In the original Greek, it means the “State of Death” and is the equivalent of the word, “Sheol”, “the place of the dead” of the Old Testament. It is translated as “hell” in the New Testament. Why? Hades was the “hell” of the pagan Greek religion.

2. “Tartarus” is the Greek word translated as “hell” one time in the New Testament, It is the place where the fallen angels are chained. It doesn't mean “hell.” The literal definition, in Greek, is “Caves of Gloom”. How is it possible to convert “the caves of Gloom into “hell”?

3. “Gehenna,” the word used by Jesus to represent the Lake of Fire and Brimstone, is incorrectly translated as “Hell” 13 times in the New Testament. Gehenna was the city dump at the South end of Jerusalem where all the garbage was burned. Gehenna is not a Greek word. It is an Aramaic word. The translators translated it as “Hell” 13 times. In the Old Testament, in 3 verses, it is correctly translated as “the valley of Hinnom”. It is spelled exactly the same as in the New Testament. How is it possible that a word meaning “valley” in the Old Testament becomes “hell” in the New Testament when the words are spelled exactly the same? This is worse than just translational error. It is the translators “assigning” a meaning to a word to make the verse fit their doctrinal upbringing, the use of literary license

These are the total of the words translated in Scripture as “Hell” in the entire Bible. When the literal translations of these words are examined, it is evident and confirmed that the word “Hell” does not exist in the Bible. If a person insists on believing in “Hell” because he was taught the doctrine, then he grieves the Holy Spirit and defames the heart of God, declaring that he believes that God is a torturer who tortures people in fire forever. Is this what you believe? Read Jeremiah 32:35 that says:

Jeremiah 32:35 GOD SAYS PUTTING PEOPLE IN FIRE IS ABOMINATION AND SIN. DOES GOD SIN?

35 and they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of Ben-hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire in honor of Moloch, which no one had commanded them, nor did it cross my mind that they should commit this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

This verse ALONE cancels and destroys the "Hell" doctrine that God will put people in fire forever. God says:

1. It is the worship of the god Moloch/Baal or idolatry.
2. It is an abomination to put people in the fire.
3. It never entered into His Mind to put people in fire; He said it never crossed His mind that they would do such a thing! Those the are the words of Father God!
4. He said it's sin to put people in the fire.
5. Matthew 25:41 says that "Hell" was prepared only for "The Devil and his angels," not for man. It is clear that God Himself says that putting people in fire is a sin. Do you think God will sin'?

This one verse of Jeremiah 32:35 alone refutes the doctrine of hell and damnation., These are the words from the mouth of God Himself, but 'the churches, today, preach the opposite. They impugn the reputation and the heart of God, when God, Himself, says the opposite. This verse is very important because it is the definitive refutation of the doctrine of hell and condemnation. It means that the Bible itself condemns such a doctrine. We must recognize that the scriptures have been manipulated and that it was not the primitive church, the early church, that did it. Historically, the doctrine of "hell" came after the first 400 years of the early church, and that the verses that speak of "hell" were purposely and intentionally changed by a well-known church that is known throughout the world for the purpose of promoting its doctrines, the doctrine of "hell" being intended to make people dependent upon them. This church and her daughter churches exist today and are called "Mystery Babylon" in The Apocalypse, Chapters 17 and 18.

If God will put the people who died in sin in the fire of "hell", God would be committing 'the sin that he said is an abomination. In these verses, God said 'that if they put people in fire, it is blasphemy. God does not sin. This is what the church preaches to the contrary. Now you know why . Paul said that "In the last days, the Apostasy will come." Apostasy means that the church of the end of the age departs from Bible truths as originally intended for them to be understood. We understand, then, that the doctrine of Hell and eternal damnation is exclusively a doctrine of the Roman Catholic Church and not of the the early Christians. The doctrine of Hell by the people who died in their sins was perpetuated by the Roman Church and then by the Protestant churches when they separated from Rome and took the Bible from Rome with them. Not one of the Protestant Reformers questioned the doctrine of the Bible that they carried out of the Catholic Church because it had been used for almost 1000 years and was never questioned until Luther challenged Rome. When the King of England divorced spiritual control of England from Rome, he ordered his priests of the Church of England to make a new translation of the Bible into the vernacular, that is, the English language. Few people know or understand that the results were the translation called "the King James Bible, translated in 1611, from the Latin Vulgate Bible of Rome, and from the Greek and Hebrew Scriptures by 9 priests of the Church of England who had just separated from Rome. They were Roman Catholic ex-priests and their doctrinal education was Roman Catholic. The Bible they translated and which to this day, is the King James Bible, is Roman Catholic in much of its doctrinal contents, including the doctrines of hell and damnation and eternal judgment. The Protestants brought the doctrines from Rome and taught them in their different denominational churches because the Latin Vulgate Bible was already in use for almost 1000 years. No one questioned the validity of the translation.

Perhaps there will be some who will not believe everything that is said in this writing, when all they have to do is have an open heart and ask the Holy Spirit to confirm it to them.

Make no mistake about it, salvation is all of Christ and nothing of us. I hear pastors tell people that they must make a decision for Christ. It is impossible to make a decision for Christ by one's own faith or will. Listen to the words of Jesus: "No one can come to Me unless My Father calls them." Then, and only then, does Christ draw them. It is all of God and nothing from us. For this reason, the Book of Hebrews tells us that our covenant with Christ is the Covenant only in His Blood. It comes from Him to us. Our blood is not acceptable. Salvation is all of Christ and none of us. If a person is really in "Hell", the only reason they could possibly be there is because they could not fulfill God's expectation of what He wanted them to do or be. None were able to meet His satisfaction. There is no other reason. They could not stop sinning of their own accord to His satisfaction. They didn't perform well enough for Christ. Their obedience was not perfect. This is what is being taught in the churches. But most pastors don't realize what they're teaching. Men are saved by the grace of God through faith in Christ. Not by performance. The end-time church preaches many heresies. Matthew 25:41 says that "Hell" (The State of Death) was prepared for the Devil and his angels"" Why do men not accept the word of God as it is, and insist on going beyond what it says? We must walk in correct concepts and true doctrines to glorify God.

Consider the following concepts:

Is God able to save all men but unwilling? or

Does God want to save all men but without being able to do it, without being able?

If God wants to save all men and has the power to do so, but not the will to use it, this is an accusation against the power of God!

If God is able to save all men but unwilling, this is an accusation against the love of God!

About His good will, the Apostle Peter said that "God is not willing that any man should perish, and that all men come to repentance." (2 Peter 3:9)

About His ability, the Apostle Paul wrote that God "is able to save to the uttermost ( the supreme (maximus)." (Hebrew.7:25)

Thus we conclude that God is both willing and able to save all men and, indeed, will save all men. - by Harvey Turnage

This is the revelation of God's Plan, Purpose, Power and Pleasure to do everything He has determined to do. He won't lie.

All things submit under the feet of Christ so that God may be all in all! (Isaiah 46:10, 57:16) 6:18; 1 Corinthians 13:8; 15:28)

- by Harold Lovelace

Learn the Lesson of St. Luke 15:3-5:

3 Then Jesus told them this parable: 4 "Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Doesn't he leave the ninety-nine on the open ground and go after the lost sheep until he finds it? 5 And when he finds him, joyfully deceives him cornbread on his shoulders 6 and goes home. He then calls some of his friends and adjoins them together and says, 'Rejoice with me; he found my lost sheep.'"

What does this parable mean? The lesson is saying that 99% is not enough for the Lord Jesus Christ. He needs to save 100%. This is the love and balm of the Lord Jesus Christ to all men [sheep]. This is the message of the Scriptures.

The doctrine of Hell did not exist ' during the first 500 years of the early Church. It is originally a false doctrine of Roman Catholic theology. The author of the doctrine is Augustine. It is a doctrine of a man, not the revelation of scripture by the Holy Spirit. The Bible had been tampered with early in the church's history.

In Titus 3:5 we read "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his spirit of Godliness we are saved, by the power of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit";

In Titus 2:11 we read:

11 "By the grace of God who brings salvation he has appeared to all men",

In 1 Timothy 2:3-4

3 For this it is well and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior;

4 Who will have all [men] to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth

(Do you think God will have His will?)

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, and be declared in due time.

(Do you think His ransom failed?)

Luke 20:38:

38 For He is not the God of the dead, but of the living : for all live unto Him.

1 Timothy 4:10

10 For therefore we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe.

(The implication is that Jesus Christ is also their Savior who does not really believe. Savior of all, the Scriptures say.)

Acts 3:21

21 Whom heaven must receive until the times of the restitution of all things, which God said by the mouth of all his holy prophets from the world began.

1 Corinthians 15:22

1 Cor 15:22

22 As in Adam all die, even so in Christ all will be made 'alive.

(Given from the verse of This that ALL will live in Christ. If some are condemned to hellfire, then the Holy Spirit must change and write the this scripture as, "In Adam all die, in Christ some are saved and the rest will be burned." So Adam and the Work of Satan through sin was 100% effective in doing its destruction, and if Christ only saves like 40% (by example), and the rest are burned in Hell, then Adam and Satan win out over Christ's work of the Cross. This is the absurd message that pastors are preaching from the pulpit although they may not realize it. It is false doctrine, and it is slandering the heart of Father God. It is to say that God a torturer. It is to say that God will not save all. For this reason, St. Paul said that in the the last days the church will be in apostasy. Those who worship God must worship in the Spirit in the Truth. (John 4:24) Even though the Apostasy has come, it does not mean that we have to participate in it.

THE TRUE DOCTRINE OF THE LAKE OF FIRE AND BRIMSTONE

Theologians believe that the Lake of Fire and Sulfur is the eternal torment of the unsaved dead, and that it is forever. Revelation 20:10 says it is for "ages and ages." It's for a period of time. An age (eon) is a limited, very long period of time. It's not forever. This means that God is doing something for everyone who is in the Lake of Fire and Brimstone. What is the Lake of Fire and Brimstone? Let's look at the definitions of the original Greek manuscripts of The Apocalypse, not as they are translated:

Lake: Greek: "limnen; limne", meaning - a safe harbor, a place of refuge, metaphorically, a "womb"

Fire: Greek: "puri". meaning - fire, lightning, tribulation

Sulfur (sulfur): Greek "theion" - meaning sulfur, Purification.

Important: The root word of "sulfur"" "theiou", means "Divine Spirit" or "Holy Spirit".

Yes, this is the truth. Research yourself using multiple sources for studies of these words and it will confirm what I say. The Lake of Fire and Brimstone is the Holy Spirit. My Bible says the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Life (John 6:63). The Lake of Fire and Brimstone, therefore, cannot be a place of eternal damnation because eternal damnation is eternal spiritual death. It is contrary to the ministry of the Holy Spirit who is the Spirit of Life. The revelation that the Holy Spirit, who is only the author of The Scriptures, gives to us is that The Lake of Fire and Brimstone is a place of restoration, healing, deliverance, and salvation to those who are lost, as Paul the Pharisee who was wounded by the same fire of God on his horse on the road to Damascus, and fell down, and got up blind to say to Jesus, "Who are you, Lord?" That same fire of God, the Light of God that struck Paul to know Jesus, by that same fire of God, those in the Lake of Fire will come to know Jesus, also. It will not be forever and ever but for "ages and ages" (Greek: Aion, aionios) because no one in the Lake of Fire had a Savior to pay for their sins. There he will weeping and gnashing of teeth (Luke 13:28) But, all will be saved in God's time. This is the truth of the Bible from the original Greek manuscripts from which translations are made. It is a matter of careful scholarship. For a revelation to be the truth of God's Word, scripture must interpret scripture. Should the Scriptures, then, support this truth? The following scriptures confirm that God saves all beings who were not saved and died in sin and receive salvation in the Lake of Fire and Brimstone:

For our God is a fire of consummation." (Hebrews 12:29)

1 Corinthians 3:11-15 Bible of the Americas

"11 For no one can lay any other foundation than the one that is already laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if anyone builds on this foundation, he deceives gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, 13 the work of every one will become evident; for the day will make it known, a revealing fire will be revealed. The fire itself will test the quality of each one's work.

14 If the work of anyone who has built on the foundation remains, he will receive a reward.

15 If anyone's work is consumed by fire, he will suffer loss; nonetheless, he will be saved, yet as by fire . (1 Corinthians 3:11-15)

"In Adam all die, in Christ all are made alive." (1 Corinthians 15:22)

1 Corinthians 15:28 The Bible of the Americas

28 And when He has subjected all things, then the Son Himself will also be subjected to Him he who subjected all things to Himself, that God will be all in all.

"The Lord does not delay in fulfilling His promise, as some understand the delay that he is patient towards us but, not wanting anyone to perish, but for all to come to repentance . (2 Peter 3:9)

Do you think God will have His Will?

Response:

Ephesians 1:11 The Bible of the Americas

11 we have also obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the determination of his will,"

1 Timothy 4:10 The Bible of the Americas

10 For this is why we labor and strive, because we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers.

"especially of believers" implies that God is also the Savior of unbelievers. (1 Timothy 4:10)

Christ is the Savior of all who believe. He says He is the Savior of all men. Everyone means everyone. In the literal Greek version of the manuscript of which the original translation is made, it does not say "all men", it says "THE ALL" which means the whole Creation and everyone in it. He IS THE Savior OF ALL CREATION AND ALL THAT EXISTS IN IT.

Paul's message is that if Christ is not the Savior of all, Christ is not the Savior at all. God cannot lie and the Bible is written by His Holy Spirit, therefore we know that Christ is the Savior of all. There is no place to teach false teachings and vain theologies in the Christian walk of Faith. We must embrace these Bible verses as the complete truth. Spiritual things are not always as men say they are. Spiritual things consist in what God has revealed by the Scriptures alone. Glory to God and His Love in creating us to know Him. He considers His Creation and all who are in it as His Children. He is a Father of one and all. He is the Father of all who loves unconditionally and does not reject one of his children, bad or good. God looks beyond sin to see the need.

The heart and purpose of Father God is to love the lost even to life. This is the heart of the Father. That is the priesthood of Melchizedek, the Holy Spirit. God's position is that He has children who behave and children who don't behave. But His children are His creation. His unconditional Love cannot be denied because the Scripture says that "God is Love", not a torturer. Those who preach Hell and damnation simply do not know or understand the heart of Father God. These false doctrines of the Roman Catholic Church and Protestants denigrate the heart of God. It's blasphemy. Think about what you are teaching others if you believe in such doctrines. Do you think God burns sinners forever? Does God have an anger problem that He must punish forever? At what point in "forever" is His justice satisfied? An imperfect human court understands that the punishment should be adjusted to the crime, but is it that God who does not understand this and therefore must punish forever? It's absurd. If a man has only one sin on his soul in 70 years of human life but must be punished forever, where is the justice? Is that what you think?

The cleansing in the Lake of Fire is the righteousness of God. It is a punishment of correction, not a punishment of revenge. The Lord must correct His children. Then one day will come when the Book of Revelation tells us that He will give each one a new name, a new identity, and restore all things. (Isaiah 56:5; Rev 3:12; (Acts 3:21)

In Chapter 1 of Genesis, God told Adam and Eve to go out and multiply and take dominion over the whole Earth. If Adam and Eve had obeyed, they would have raised up a generation of sinless children to God The Father of us all. Instead, they fell into sin and God the Father was deprived of having the sinless generation of children that He desired, because Adam and Eve made an unholy alliance with Satan, rejecting the fatherhood of God, and making Satan their father, and obeying him. Jesus reversed the curse through the born-again experience, again permitting a sinless generation of believers to be raised up to God.

There is a Law in the Old Testament that Scholars call "the Law of the Man-Child." (Deut.25:5-6)

Sin of the Law said that if a man died children, that his living brother should impregnate a his widow raise a child in the memory of his dead brother so that his name would be remembered in Israel. Adam never had the opportunity to raise the generation of sinless children that God asked him to, when he said to Adam to go out and multiply. Adam and Eve fell into sin before they could obey the command of the Father God. In the New Testament, Jesus said that He called believers his "brothers." Through the born-again experience, Jesus raises a generation from the sinless Man-child to the Father to spiritually fulfill the Law of the Man-child for his spiritual "brother", Adam, who was not capable of realizing. Jesus raises the sinless generation that his "brother" Adam could not raise from his own descendants to Father God, spiritually completing, the "Law of the Man-child for Adam. God will now have the sin-free generation that He originally wanted , through Adam's "brother", Jesus. That sin-free generation raised by Jesus is called The Remnant and the "called out ones". Why does Jesus do this? The answer:

Philippians 2:10-11: The Bible of the Americas

"10 so that in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those who are in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and that every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

In this way, Christ Jesus performs the greatest miracle in all Creation to bring the greatest glory to His Father in Heaven - giving Him the sinless generation of sin that The Father always wanted free. This is the reason that God saves EVERYONE and that God restores ALL things. (1 Tim.4:10; Acts (Actions) 3:21) Jesus Christ is able. God is love. His love never fails. God will save everyone for His glory.

Now do you see a WHO the Real Jesus of the Bible is? Here are two very simple biblical proofs that God will save all - The Scriptures say:

1. "God wants everyone to be saved." (1 Timothy 2:4)
2. "His will will be done." (Matthew 6:10)
3. "God is love." (1 John 4:8)
4. "Love never fails"" (1 Corinthians 13:10)

And here is another proof that God will save all .The Scriptures say:

1. "It is not God's will that any man perish."(2 Peter 3:9)
2. "All things follow the determination of God's will." (Ephesians.1:11)
3. Therefore, no man will perish. (1 Tim.4:10)

WHAT HAPPENS IN THE LAKE OF FIRE AND BRIMSTONE

Theologians believe that the Lake of Fire is the eternal torment of the unsaved dead, and that it is forever. Revelation 20:10 they are tested (not tormented) for ages and ages. It's for a period of time. An age (eon) is a limited, very long period of time. This means that God does something for everyone who is in the Lake of Fire and Brimstone. What is the Lake of Fire and Brimstone?

The Lake of Fire and Brimstone is the Holy Spirit. My Bible tells me that the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Life (John 6:63). The Lake of Fire and Brimstone, therefore, cannot be a place of eternal damnation because eternal damnation is eternal spiritual death. It is contrary to the ministry of the Holy Spirit who is the Spirit of Life. The impression and revelation that the Spirit gives to us, who alone is the author of the Scriptures, is that The Lake of Fire and Brimstone is a place of rehabilitation and salvation for them who are not saved. It will be for centuries and centuries because they did not have a Savior to pay for their sins. There he will weeping and gnashing his teeth (Luke 13:28) But, all will be saved in God's Time (1 Cor.15) This is the truth of the Bible from the original Greek manuscripts from which the translations are made. It is a matter of careful scholarship. Translators, pastors and biblical scholars who defend the doctrine of eternal damnation, hell and eternal punishment, do so because they trust the translations of translators, and the translations they read in their Bible are made using words translated in an incorrect way, the definitions given meanings that they do not have. . They trust what they have been taught in their Bible colleges and seminaries. That's man leading man. You must go to the Holy Spirit and ask if what I say is true. You should ask if what I quote from the original scriptures is accurate. He is not afraid that you will, because I know that I know the Holy Spirit and His truth of what I say, because it is He who has revealed these things to me through my many years of study and what the New Testament scriptures in your present-day Bible say about judgment, hell, damnation, eternal destruction, everlasting punishment, simply do not reveal not the true heart of Father God. This is a truth that you must grasp and hold on to. Such doctrines malign the heart and intent of The Father, and make him out to be a Demiurge, a god who has both a good side and a dark side that torments and tortures people in fire forever. God is pure, holy, and benevolent. When you make Him out to be a Demiurge, a god who has a dark side and a good side, you are bordering on blaspheming His character. Wake up, church!

For a revelation to be the truth of God's Word, scripture must interpret scripture. Should the Scriptures there support this truth? The following scriptures confirm that God saves all beings who were not saved and who died in sin and receive salvation, in the Lake of Fire and Brimstone:

One more time:

15 If anyone's work is consumed by fire, he will suffer loss; nonetheless, he will be saved, yet as by fire. (1 Corinthians 3:11-15)

"In Adam all die, in Christ all are made alive." (1 Corinthians 15:22,28)

"28 And when all things must be subdued by Him, then must the Son also Himself submit to The One who put all things under Him, that God can be all in all." (1 Corinthians 15:28)

"The Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness but He is patient towards us, not willing that any man perish [to suffer ruin], but that all should come to repentance. (2 Peter 3:9)

Do you think God will have His Will?

The Answer: "[Christ] in whom we have also obtained an inheritance, PREDESTINED US ACCORDING TO HIS PURPOSE. Who works ALL THINGS according to HIS OWN WILL." (Ephesians 1:11)

"For therefore we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. (1 Timothy 4:10)

This verse is the true Gospel.

Christ is the Savior of all who believe. He says He is the Savior of "all men". Since then "especially those who believe" assumes that He is also the Savior of unbelievers. "ALL" means everything. To the unbelievers I say "What part of the word "all" do you not understand? The in the literal original Greek version, it says nothing like "all men," it says "THE ALL" meaning the whole Creation and EVERYONE and everything in it. He IS THE Savior OF THE ALL (CREATION) . St. Paul's message is that if Christ is not the Savior of ALL, Christ is not the Savior at all. God cannot lie and the Bible is written by His Holy Spirit, therefore we know that Christ is the Savior of ALL.

There is no place for false teachings and vain theologies in the Christian walk of Faith. We must embrace these Bible verses as the complete truth. Spiritual things do not consist of what men say they are. Spiritual things consist of what God says they are.. Glory of God for His Love and that He creates us to know Him. He considers all of His Creation and all who are in it as His children. He is a Father of all, who loves unconditionally and rejects none of his children, bad or good. That is the parable of the prodigal son. The Lord's character looks beyond our sin to see the need of each one. This is the heart of Father God. He has children who behave and children who do not behave. But His children are His children. This cannot be denied because the Scripture says that "God is Love". The cleansing in the Lake of Fire is the righteousness of God. It is a punishment of correction. an impartation of grace, Spirit, and conscience, and a cleansing.. A day will come when The Apocalypse (Book of Revelation) tells us that He will give each a new name, a new identity, and restore all things. (Isaiah 56:5; Revelation 3:12; Actions (acts) 3:21)

THE SECOND DEATH

What is the Second Death?

Holy Scripture says that the Lake of Fire and Brimstone is the Holy Spirit, which the Gospel of John calls the Spirit of Life. But the Scriptures say that the Lake of Fire and Brimstone is the Second Death! How can we reconcile an apparent contradiction, if it is a contradiction? The answer is that Revelation is a chronological book, a prophetic timeline and, when interpreted that way, everything becomes clear. How do we know that Revelation is a prophetic timeline? Because Jesus said so. Listen to his words to the Apostle John:

Revelation 1:19 The Bible of the Americas

19 "Write therefore the things which you have seen, and those which are, and those after these."

This verse refers to Chapter 1. The things that were. Jesus' words: "I was dead and now I'm alive." This is the thing you have seen.

In Chapters 2 and 3, we see the things that are; the judgment and the recommendations of the 7 churches of Asia at the time of the writing, the things that are.

In Chapters 4-22, we read the events that are to come. The Book of Revelation is chronological, a sequence in time where events follow in sequence of order. So this book begins by telling us that there is physical death (of Jesus). Then, as we progress through the book, we read that Death and the State of Death ("Hell") are thrown into the Lake of Fire and that this is the Second Death. (Revelation 20:14 and Revelation 21:18):

Revelation 20:14 The Bible of the Americas

14 "And Death (the spirit) and Hades (the State of the Dead) were thrown into the Lake of Fire. This is the Second Death: the Lake of Fire."

The second death for whom? The people in the lake or for the spirit of Death and the State of Death?

This question is solved in 1 Corinthians 15:26 American Bible and Revelation 20.14 and Revelation 21:4:

1 Corinthians 15:26 The Bible of the Americas:
"26 And the last enemy that will be abolished is death."

And Revelation 20:14 The Bible of the Americas:

14 And Death (the spirit) and Hades (the condition or State of Death) were cast into the Lake of Fire. This is the second death: the lake of fire."

The Second Death means the "death" of the spirit of Death and the condition of death, consummated in the fire, the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Life. Life cancels out death. "Out God is a consuming fire . God consumes out of all fallen beings and conditions, that which is inconsistent with His Life and character, and leaves on fire all that is. That the spirit of Death could not hold Jesus in the tomb meant that its power was already defeated by the work of the Cross. The proof was the resurrection of Christ. Eternal Life from the Spirit of God cancels Death. That is the Second Death.

What is the result of the spirit of death and the State of Death thrown into the Lake of Fire? adds, In Revelation 21:14 "That there shall be no more death."

He says there will be no more death. The power of the spirit of death and the termination of the Death State are consumed by the Fire-Life of The Holy Spirit. It is the death of death. The Lake of Fire can never itself be the Second Death for people who are in the Lake of Fire because it is the Spirit of Life, the same Resurrection and the same Spirit of Life that raised Jesus from the dead. The life of the Holy Spirit cancels out death. Then the Lake of Fire cannot be the Second death for people in the Lake , because everyone in the Lake of Fire is cleansed and rehabilitated by Christ:

Hebrews 12:29 The Bible of the Americas
29 for our God is a consuming fire."

1 Corinthians 15:26 The Bible of the Americas:
26 "And the last enemy to be abolished is death."

The pattern of the scriptures is that we go from physical death, to the death of death (the Second Death), to no death (Eternal Life):

Physical Death > The Second Death > No Death

Confirmation:

Luke 20:38 The Bible of the Americas

38 "He is not the God of the dead, but of the living; for all live to Him."

Revelation 21:14 "That there will be no more death."

1 Timothy 4:10 The Bible of the Americas

10 "For this is why we labor and strive, because we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Savior of all men,* especially of believers."

* the word "man" in the original scriptural Greek, "anthropos" means "men," "humanity," and "angels," including fallen angels, by Scriptural use and examples. Remember Matthew 25:41, The Devil and his angels were cast into "hell", "The State of Death; and now in The Apocalypse death (spirit of death) and The State of Death (the place of the dead) are thrown into the Lake of Fire with Satan, the Antichrist, and the False Prophet. Satan's kingdom is cast out with the demons as well. The existence of all fallen beings in the kingdom of darkness is the first death. There is no life in the kingdom of darkness. When they are thrown into the Lake of Fire and Brimstone, this is the Second Death, which means the "death" of the spirit of Death, the consummation of its ministry and power so that the ministry of death is consummated from him, and life, conscience and repentance is imparted by the power of the Holy Spirit, just as He did for Paul on the road to Damascus when the same Spirit-power hit Paul and threw him off of his horse. The Spirit of Life, is the Lake of Fire and destroys the State of Death, erroneously called "Hell" and consumes it in the Fire of God, and ends the existence of its evil because the scriptures say that EVERYONE lives unto Him. (Hebrews 12:29; Luke 20:38))

The Apostle Paul was on the road to Damascus to kill the Christians when a flash of firelight hit him and knocked him off of his horse and he got up ' and said, "Who are You, Lord?" How could Paul know that He was the Lord? Man needs a resurrected spirit-in-Christ to call God, "Lord". It was to be remembered that Paul was a Pharisee, of the seed line of Satan (Genesis 3:15), because the Pharisees were Kenites, the descendants of Cain. The flash of the light that hit Paul was the "fire" of the Holy Spirit that resurrected in Paul his spirit- man to know God. The same happens to the lost in the Lake of Fire and they receive a conscience with which to repent. This is the same power of the Holy Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead, The power of resurrection life now applies to the entire Creation of living beings who did not have Jesus as their Savior. (1 Corinthians 15:22)

The Bible of the Americas:

22 For just as all men are dead in Adam, so also in Christ are all living beings made alive.

The Bible of the Americas in Revelation 2:11

11 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. They will not suffer harm from the second death."

Some of you will be surprised that God will save EVERYONE in the Lake of Fire after centuries and ages of correction and cleansing, and some will even say, "Do you mean that God will even save Satan, his fallen angels, demons and all evil beings like the Nephilim and their descendants? What part of the word "all" do you not understand? I'm not the one saying these things. It is the Word of God. Why would God do this? The answer is in Isaiah 45:6 - 7:

Isaiah 45:6 - 7

The King James Version

6 So that it may be known that from the rising of the sun to the setting of the sun, there is none besides Me. I am the Lord, and there is no other;

7 He who forms the light and creates the darkness: I make peace and create evil: I, the Lord, do all these things.

Notice very well what the Lord says: "I make peace and create evil" this is an accurate translation from the Hebrew language.

The Hebrew if this verse is really literal (Scripture4all.org ). Why does God do that. The answer is that God has chosen to teach man by contrast. You would never know what love is unless you knew what hate is. You would never know what night is unless you knew what day is. You would never know what war is unless you knew what peace is. You would never know what life is unless you knew what death is. You would never know what evil is unless you knew what good is. God teaches by contrast. The proof is in Genesis 2 where God said to Adam: "Of all the trees of the garden you will eat, but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you will not eat, because the day you eat of its fruit, you will surely die." Did that stop Adam and Eve from eating the fruit of the tree? No. Why? Because no one had died. They did not know what death was because did not have anything to contrast with. No one had ever died. God teaches by contrast. That is the purpose of his existence, to teach righteousness through judgment. . The apostate church teaches that God's judgment of sin is to punish in hell. We must now examine the doctrine of eternal punishment and eternal destruction. Are they true?

ON THE NATURE OF GOD'S JUDGMENT

The Hebrew word "mishpit" and its variants occur in three important Old Testament scriptures that tell us the purpose of judgment. Let's look now to see what we can learn about God's judgment:

Isaiah 26:9 (KJV) "My soul... desires you at night, yes, my spirit within me will seek you early; for when your judgments are on the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

26:9 OF THE LITERAL SEPTUAGINT TRANSLATION FROM THE GREEK (LCV): "With my soul I long for you in the night. In fact, with my spirit inside me I will look for you early. For as light are your judgments upon the earth, and the inhabitants of the habitation (Earth) learn righteousness (Septuagint translation of the Greek text that preceded the present Masoretic text of the Old Testament used in most of our current Bibles.) When Jesus and the Apostles quoted the Scriptures, they used only the text of the Septuagint, the Old Testament in the Greek.

In the passages mentioned above, we learn that God's judgment is:

[1] for justice (righteousness), and

[2] for the light (revelation).

(3) for the truth. Now let's take a look Isa. 42:3 (KJV):

"No bruised reed shall be broken, and no smoking flax shall be quenched; the truth shall give judgment."

These are the only Scriptures about the meaning of God's judgment in the Bible. Notice that nowhere in the Scriptures does God say that justice is for condemnation or revenge for sin. The Bible does not say, "The wages of sin is Hell." It says,

The wages of sin is Death." (Rom.6:23)

He teaches us that God's judgment is the truth, to give light of the truth. But there is more:

Ps 94:15 (KJV) "But judgment will return righteousness; and all the upright in heart will follow it." But wait, let's take a look at the translation verse from the Greek of the Septuagint of this Literal Concordant Version (LCV) of the Bible:

"For judgment will return righteousness, and all who are upright in heart will follow it."

Notice in the above passages, and particularly in the literal Greek translation of the Old Testament, that judgment has a purpose, to turn a person to justice (righteousness). This scripture confirms to us that judgment is used by God as a "turning point" from injustice to justice, from sin to holiness, from rebellion to self-control, from rebellion to submission: "Every knee will bow and every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord."

Now let's synthesize what we have learned. Using Scripture to interpret Scripture, we have learned that God's purpose in judgment is to convert a person's character to righteous judgment:

1. to justice (righteousness)
2. to the truth
3. into the light (revelation)
4. to get away from sin and sinful lifestyle, but not to eternal damnation.

ON THE NATURE OF GOD'S PUNISHMENT

There are two of words used from the Greek of the New Testament to express the idea of punishment. The first word is "timorea" in Hebrews 10:29 to express the wrath of God's judgment on those who treat Christ with contempt, trample the Precious Blood under their feet, and insult the Spirit of Grace. The punishment mentioned in this verse is the equivalent of what we see when a court throws its severest penalty against a rebellious criminal whose conduct is despicable and worthy of a severe penalty. This is the only time this word is used in the New Testament and has the connotation of a disciplinary "recovery". The next verse continues, there is a similar word in intent that says, "The Lord will judge (Greek: "krinei" from "krisis") His people. Notice that despite God's fierce response, the word "judge" is a cognate of the word "krisis," meaning a decision-forced judgment imposed on the offender, an implied ominous consequence of destruction. This is just a penalty that will discipline and turn the party into justice-light-truth, as the word "krisis" implies.

The second word used for "punishment" in the Greek of the New Testament is the word "kolasis". This is the word used in Matthew 25:46 when we read "And these will go to "eternal" punishment": but the righteous to eternal life." The term translated by Jerome, Augustine and the translators of the King James Bible translated it as "eternal punishment". It is the Greek, "kolasin aionion". Contrary to what Robertson teaches in his "Pictures-Words of the New Testament," the word "aion" does not mean "eternal." Its only meaning an "age" ("aeon").

The second word used for "punishment" in the Greek of the New Testament is the word "kolasis". This is the word used in Matthew 25:46 when we read "And these will go away to eternal punishment, but the righteous will have eternal life." The term translated by Jerome, Augustine and the King James translators as "eternal punishment" is the Greek "kolasin aionion". Its only meaning is "age" or "aeon". In Strong's Concordance, the definitions of "age" or "eon" are said to be: "eternity", eternal, age, forever and ever, long ago, never, old, time, world, worlds." The concordance of the New American Standard Bible says the same thing.

How is it possible that the Greek word "Aion" or "age" can mean "eternity", "eternal", "forever and ever" or "world". "eternal" " eternity" or "forever and ever". In Revelation 20:10 the word for "age", "aion" in Greek, is translated as "forever and ever". The word "aion" in Greek is a noun and has a plural form. If I apply the plural form, does "eternities" or "eternals" or "forevers and evers" make sense? They don't. Therefore, "aion" or "eon" cannot mean those things because the pleural forms do not make sense and to give such definitions to this word violates the laws of language. The word "aion" means only one thing - an "age". It can have a plural form, "ages", which is correct. This example demonstrates the kind of problems a translator can encounter when he adds meanings to words that were not intended in the original Greek manuscripts and does so, intentionally, to make the verses say what he want them to say, according to his doctrinal education. This is a violation of the laws of language and causes the verses to say things that are not accurate or true. That is why this book is written, to draw attention to the problem of harmful and manipulated translations. The Bible has been tampered with, but no one will say it. Many of the Bible verses have been hijacked by Satan to say what he wants them to say, and to defame the reputation of God the Father. We should all ask the Holy Spirit to bear witness to the truth of what we read when we read Bible verses. The apostasy from the truth of many verses, is here.

So, what we can establish is the fact that first "kolasin aionion" does not mean "eternal punishment". At best, it would mean "the punishment of the ages." But does even that really mean? The answer is "No". The reason is that even the word "kolasin", which used to mean "punishment", is mistakenly slandered as something that it does not mean. The root meaning of "kolasis" from which the form "kolasin" is derived means "a pruning", as when pruning shrubs or trees; The implication of this is that such an act corrects the state of health of the bush or tree so that it strengthens and produces more fruits and foliage. This is the sense implied in the word "kolasin", and its true meaning is not that of "punishment" as a punishment of revenge "punishment", but, that it is a punishment of correction toward bearing righteous fruit, hence the idea of "pruning". This concept is also well established in the literature on this topic.

When Jesus spoke to the people, He and the apostles spoke in the Greek language, which was the national language of Israel and all surrounding nations for more than 200 years. Jesus only spoke Aramaic around the Sea of Galilee, among his own people, because he was a Galilean. But the national language of Israel was Greek, because the Greeks were merchants with many nations, and their business was well established in supplying other countries. Many of the nations around Israel also spoke Greek. When Jesus told people about God's punishment for sin and rebellion, he never used the Greek word "timorea" because he knew that people feared that kind of punishment of revenge. He always used the Greek word "kolasin" to give them to understand that the punishment was one of correction in which God was pruning the person so that he would bear more fruit.

We can easily understand that when children are punished and corrected, not to take revenge on them; that when they receive the "pruning", they are much better for it. This is the sense in which the word "kolasin" should rightfully be used in Scripture. The meaning of the word "punishment", in the Greek, "kolasin", in essence, is not a correct assignment of definition to this word. The correct definition must be "an imposed correction" in the sense of correction to the truth in order for it to bear fruit. This is also its historical use among the ancient Greeks. Now, if we reconsider the term "kolasin aionion", erroneously translated as "eternal punishment" in Matthew 25:46, we can now easily understand that its correct and most honorable translation is "aeonic punishment" or "eonian punishment", a punishment of ages that has a time limit, the word "aion", from which "aionion" is derived, meaning "ages" or the ages of the ages. Another acceptable translation would be "punishment of lasting age" or "discipline of lasting age". It is interesting to note that when Jesus spoke about the punishment of the ages, he never used the Greek word "timorea", which means a punishment of revenge that the people feared, and he always used the word "kolasin" which means a punishment of correction.

ON THE NATURE OF "ETERNAL DESTRUCTION"

Is "eternal destruction true?

In 2 Thessalonians. 1:9 - (King James Version) we read of those who will not obey the Gospel: "They who will be punished receive "eternal destruction" from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power."

This is not a valid tradition. The translation into Greek verse from the previous literal Greek (Literal Concordant Version) is:

"They will incur the justice of all the eonic ruin from the face of the Lord and the Glory of His presence."

Notice the in the literal Greek, the word for "punished" is not even there. The correct translation of that phrase "Who will be punished" (Greek: "hoitines diken tisousin") is "who will incur the justice of".

Then we read in the same verse of the King James Version, the words "eternal destruction". The word translated as "eternal" is our old friend, the word "aion", which means "age" or "eonian" or "persistent to the age". Now the word "destruction" requires a little more attention.

Let's now talk about the words used from the New Testament in the Greek that imply "destruction". The first is the Greek word "apoleia" ("apollumi") and the other is "olethros", which is a derivative of "appolumi".

Let us consider "apoleia" or "apollumi" its other form from the Greek: although translated as "destruction" in several verses of the New Testament, the true meaning of this word does not imply the destruction of one's being, but the destruction of one's well-being, according to Vine's Expository Dictionary of New Testament Words (page 169). In that sense, it means "to suffer ruin" or "to suffer loss", nothing more and nothing less. It does not imply extinction or annihilation in any sense of its use. It always means in the sense of "destruction", the destruction of one's state of welfare or being.

The other word used for "destruction" and used in 2 Thess. 1:9 mentioned above, is the Greek word "olethros". It also means "destruction", not in the sense of annihilation or extinction, but, again, in the sense of suffering a prolonged ruin or loss, and the inevitable stress/anguish of "torment" (the true Greek word is not "torment" but "trial"). If we apply the definition and meaning of the words "aion-aionios" in that verse, the "eternal destruction" becomes "aeonic ruin" or "loss or ruin of the ages" from the Lord's Presence. In other words, "the lasting ruin of the ages of the Presence of the Lord" and of the glory of His power, which means that those who suffer this judgment of correction will suffer the ruin or loss of being away from the Presence of the Lord and perceiving His Power for at least an entire age. That, dear reader, although tragic, is far from "eternal destruction".

THE PROBLEM IS THAT MANY OF THE LATTER-DAY CHURCHES ARE UNDER THE INFLUENCE UNITED NATIONS AND THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES, AND THE ENCHANTMENT OF THE RELIGIOUS SPIRIT AND THE SPIRIT OF SATAN'S LIES THAT ADMINISTER TO THE SOUL OF THE PEOPLE WHO ARE NOT YET SAVED BUT ARE IN THE PROCESS OF BEING SAVED, BEWITCHES THEM TO BELIEVE THOSE THINGS THAT ARE NOT TRUE.

It should already be obvious to you that the Lord does not annihilate or condemn people forever. The concept of "condemnation" as the word "condemnation" is erroneously applied is, in fact, the one Court term of the legitimate old English Civil Courts. When the one accused on trial in an English high court was found guilty by the jury, the judge ruled that the court found the defendant "condemned", but this was only a legal term. It only meant that the court determined that the defendant should pay a fine, nothing more than that. This expression was brought to the Scriptures by the translators of the King James English Bible when the King of England ordered the translators to translate the Bible into the vernacular, that is, the language of the common man. . When they came up with the word "krisis", instead of translating it as "trial" or "decision", they used the English court term "condemned", against which meant that the court issued a decision against the defendant who had been convicted by the jury, and applied it to the Scriptures. Through the passing of time, the meaning of "damnation" that only meant "to suffer a penalty", was changed over the centuries to mean what it means for most Christians today: annihilation or spiritual death in the fire of eternal hell. Such a concept is Babylonian. Today, the meaning of words have changed through use. For example the word "gay" today means a sexual lifestyle preference whereas 50 years ago, in the English language, it meant "happy".. The meaning of words can change over time. That's what happened with the word "the damned" when the translators of King James Bible adopted it to their translation of the Bible. I'm sure Satan loved every minute of what happened in the use of that word in the Bible.

Then we can see in the patterns of all the true meanings of all the words discussed, which reflect on the heart of the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ in such a way as to show that God does not lose any, not even the lost, and that there will come a time when His Divine Love will prevail over all circumstances and God will restore everything (Acts 3:21). The words we have studied indicate that after God has judged the wicked, the rebellious, and all evil beings, He will restore "everything." The word "birthright" in the Greek language, means "the all of everything"! When people ask me if this will include all beings, including evil beings, I answer "Yes, of course. everything means "everything". Now this surprises a few some people. A woman declared to me, ": Do you mean that God can even save Satan after everything he did to me?" I replied, "You must understand that it's not about you and your desires. It's about God and His glory. He obtains the maximum glory by performing His miracle which is to restore all creation and everything that is in it. Here is God's position: God's tolerance for sin is zero. If Satan has only quintillion of sins on his soul and you have only one sin, God says that you are in his Satan camp. Your one sin is just as offensive to God as Satan's many sins." God cannot look at one sin at all. His tolerance of sin is zero. So if God should save you, why shouldn't he save His entire creation, including Satan? Did not God say "Love your enemies" and "Do good to those who hate you?", is not Satan the enemy of God? Doesn't Satan hate God? Do you mean to tell me that God would ask you to do something that He wouldn't do?

It should already be obvious to you that the Lord does not annihilate or condemn people forever. The concept of "condemnation" as mistakenly applied to the word "krisis" is, in fact, one term of the Civil Court of the Old English language. When the word "krisis" came, instead of translation as "trial" or "decision", they used the 'English' court term "convicted", from which it means that the court issued a decision to the defendant who was tried by the jury, and nothing more or nothing less, and applied it to the Scriptures. Over time, the meaning of "condemnation" which only means to suffer a penalty, was changed a long time over the centuries to mean what it means today for many of the Christians: annihilation or spiritual death in the fire of eternal hell, which it is not. Such a concept is Babylonian, and the concept of hell and Damnation was borrowed from various pagan mystery religions of the Middle East. Augustine "borrowed" their doctrines and the King James translators adopted them in their translation of the Bible.

The proof of what I am saying lies in my discussion that began at the beginning of this writing, where I pointed out that there are two gospels of salvation in the New Testament of each Bible. The first is the Gospel of Augustine, salvation for some and condemnation for others, is found in Matt. 25: 34-46. The other, Christ, the Savior of ALL, is found in 1 Tim. 4:10, Luke 20:38, 1 Corinthians 15:22, 28, 1 Timothy. 2:5,6, and Hebrews 10:10,14. Which is the right Gospel? The answer: the second gospel of 1 Tim. 4: 10. That was the Gospel of infinite grace that the church of the Book of Acts was preaching in its early years and up to around 450-500 A.D., and correctly translated in the original New Testament scriptures of all the early manuscripts of the original New Testament. If this was not the truth, how was it possible that the Lord could restore all? (Acts 3:21) It is true that this was the predominant doctrine of the early church in its 500 years. Despite the sin, the mayor's part of the current church, all over the world, preaches the Gospel of Augustine as the Gospel of Christ. What does that mean? Two things:

1. The majority of Roman Catholic and Protestant Christians, and with many without denominations, in their theologies do not understand the true Gospel and do not recognize it; and
2. In the churches of these last times, hardly anyone really knows, nor can they recognize, the true Gospel of Christ, because none of them heard or learned it correctly to begin with.. The real Good News is that Christ is the Savior of all (not some) (1 Tim. 4: 10) Christ makes all (things) new (not some) (Rev 21: 5), and that All live unto Him (Luke 20:38), that in Christ all are made alive (not some) (1 Corinthians 15:22), that He will draw all to Him (not some) (John 12:32), that He is the ransom for

All (not some) (1 Tim. 2:5,6), and that he sacrificed Himself once for the ALL (not some) (He.10:10,14) (1 Corinthians 15:28), that God can be all in all. That, dear true believer, is the true gospel of Jesus Christ, "The Good News." He has paid the price for everyone. He has not failed in the mission for which the Father sent him. His rescue and sacrifice did not fail. His will did not fail. His love has not failed. His magnanimity and the greatness of His Infinite love and Grace shine, now, in the hearts of all who are willing to believe and receive these truths from the original Greek manuscripts written by the Holy Spirit Himself, as each is called to Him in their own order, first Christ the first fruits, then then those who are Christs' at His Coming, and then, The End and The Rest.(1 Cor.15:21) The Christ of Scripture is faithful and has not failed. He came from the Father to save everyone. He has completed his mission. And His Word no one can dilute, neither his greatness nor his true meanings, through the cunning and cunning devices of men, nor His truths be hidden by the efforts of men to dilute the meanings of words and eliminate essential words that would shed a completely different light on Scripture that ought not be there. Many churches preach that God will save some and condemn others, and call this "the Good News" of the Gospel. . For me, it's incredibly bad news! It is a bad gospel, in fact, not a gospel at all. It is false doctrine and heresy. It is theological garbage and Satanic false doctrine. Satan is using Christians and the Church to do his work for him. The doctrine of hell and damnation is a doctrine of religious witchcraft.It has to die.

MORE PROOFS

This is very important. Please let me remind you that:

1. Jesus never gave a sermon to Hell, not even once. He only spoke of Gehenna, the judgment of the Lake of Fire.
2. Paul never gave a sermon on Hell... not even once.
3. None of the Apostles ever gave a sermon on Hell... not even once.
4. In the Book of Acts, an early church history, there is not a single example of a pastor preaching a sermon on hell, not even once.
5. In The Declarations of the Faith of the first 5 Early Church Councils that covered approximately the first 500 years of the early history of the early church, in every Declaration of the first five Councils of the early church (who were not Catholics), in each Statement of Faith issued when each meeting was finished, of what I had to be taught to Christian believers, there is no mention of Hell, damnation, eternal torment or eternal judgment. Such doctrines as articles of faith to be taught to the faithful are conspicuously absent in each of the Statements of Faith issued by these early church councils. These doctrines appear as formalized "Christian doctrine" for the first time in the Council of the Roman Catholic Church near the end of the fifth century called the Council of Constantinople; the doctrines of hell, damnation, eternal torment, everlasting punishment was a teaching and confabulation of Augustine and appears in prominence in the Catholic Councils of Constantinople and then the Council of Trent at a later date. . The doctrine is first mentioned in a novel by Augustine called "The City of God" You can buy the book in your local bookstore today. The first mention of "hell" in the Western hemisphere appears first in this novel that he wrote. He brought the doctrine into the Catholic Church. He admitted that the doctrine was collusion by him and some other scholars to try to force the people of the Roman Empire to stop their immorality that was rampant in the Empire at that time.
6. Early Christians were buried in catacombs for the first 400 years of the early church. There were catacombs in Rome, Constantinople and Jerusalem. It was tradition for the family that buried their dead in the catacombs, to decorate the sepulchers with funerary art using the great themes of the Bible. Each and every one of these catacomb sepulchers have been examined by Biblical archaeologists over the years in all three locations, and they report that there is not a single crypt anywhere that shows the funerary art of hell and Damnation. Such is conspicuously absent although other great themes of the Bible are commonly expressed in their funerary art. Not one. Why? Because the doctrine of Hell and Damnation was not taught in the early church. It existed in primitive writings known to the Pharisees from the Babylonian captivity and was known to be of pagan religions but not ever accepted by the early Christians.

Do not forget that the Scripture says that in the last days the Apostasy will come. We are in the Apostasy now and many churches are teaching the same false doctrines that they have been teaching for centuries past. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you discern the truths in this scripture. It will show you the true Jesus of Scripture and the true God of the Universe. The Holy Spirit will be kind to you if you read this scripture with an open heart. More and more revelations and confirmations will come to you every time. The Scriptures cannot lie.

Conclusions: the doctrine of Damnation and Hell is a heresy of the Catholic church and pagan in origin. It has no place in the true Christian Faith, as I have documented presenting:

Test 1] The Biblical Evidence

Exhibit 2] The Historical evidence

Exhibit 3] The Archaeological evidence

The Bible says that "In the last days there will be an increase in knowledge." (Daniel 12:4)

THE DEFENSE OF THE TRUE FAITH: HOW TO CHALLENGE THOSE WHO OPPOSE THE DOCTRINE OF THE SALVATION OF ALL IN GOD'S TIMING

The material that follows is criticism of the Doctrine of the Salvation of all Men, also known as Universal Salvation. The answers are provided to defend the faith.

1. Criticism: "Universal salvation is a heresy."

Answer: "The Bible says that "Christ is the Savior of all men, especially those who believe." If you believe that the doctrine is a heresy and the Bible claims that 1 Timothy 4:10 above, is true, then, is the Bible teaching a heresy.?Do you believe this? Scripture says, "God is not a man that He should lie." (Num.23:19)

2. Criticism: "If God is going to save everyone, then what does it matter if I keep sinning?"

Answer: "If a man has a Savior, in death he will go directly from earthly life to the life of the Kingdom of God and the Presence of Father God. This is the "direct road" spoken of by the Prophet Isaiah. If you do not have Christ as the Savior, you will enter the state of death for a long period of time, after which the state of death and the spirit of death will be thrown into the Lake of Fire and Sulfur, where you and others will be tested, day and night for ages and ages. (Rev 14:10; Rev 20:10,14). I promise you you won't like it. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. . Such a question mocks God. The Bible says that it is a terrible thing to fall into the hands of the living God. (Hebrews 10:31)

3. Criticism: "Everyone cannot be saved because the Bible says they suffer a Second Death."

Answer: Revelation 2:11 says that "the Second Death will not harm the one who overcomes." The Book of Apocalypse is a chronological book. Jesus said to John, write that the things that were, the things that are, and the things that must come."

In Chapter 1 Jesus said, "I was dead and now I'm alive.", representing "the things that were". In Chapters 2 and 3, Jesus judges the 7 churches of Asia at the time of writing, that is, "the things that are". Chapters 4-22 are the things that must come. In Chapter 21 we read about the Second Death, where the spirit of death and the state of Death is thrown into the Lake of Fire. In Chapter 22 he says that "there will be no more death. The book is chronological, therefore from Chapter 1 to Chapter 22 we go from Physical Death to the Second Death to no more Death, therefore the Second Death is the death of Death. The Lake of Fire is the Holy Spirit who is the Spirit of Life (John 6:63). Life overrides and cancels death. The proof is the Resurrection of Christ.

4. Criticism: How can everything be saved if the Bible says, in Matthew 12:31-32 that the Unforgivable sin cannot be forgiven?

Answer: There is no such thing as the Unforgivable Sin. It's a mistranslation. Let's read Matthew 12:31-32:

31 "Therefore I say to you, any sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven people, but blasphemy against the Spirit shall not be forgiven. 32 Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him; but whoever [b]speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come."

There is an apparent contradiction in this translation. If the blasphemy of the Holy Spirit cannot be forgiven in this age or the age to come, then how can all manner of sin be forgiven and the question is solved by a more literal translation of the Bible Emphatic Diaglott:

"But whoever can blaspheme against the Holy Spirit has no forgiveness at the age, but is exposed to the AIONIAN judgment" (judgment of the age). (Mark 3:29)

Source: Emphatic Diaglott Bible

Thus, we see from this source that say the same thing, that the blasphemy of the Holy Spirit punishment of separation from the Presence of The Lord is an for an age, not eternal. There is a time limit to the punishment.

5. Criticism: "Jesus warned about flames of hell 12 times in the New Testament, so how can he say that "hell" is not true?"

Answer: The word "hell" as spoken earlier in this scripture is a mistranslation of 3 different words in the New Testament and one word in the Old Testament. See the discussion earlier in this scripture. Nowhere in the New Testament did Jesus ever preach a sermon to hell. Nowhere did Paul preach a sermon to hell. Nowhere did any of the Apostles preach a sermon on hell. In the Book of Acts, a history of the early church and Acts of the Holy Spirit, nowhere do we find a pastor preaching a sermon on hell in the early church. The preaching of a sermon on "hell" in the New Testament or Old Testament is clearly absent. The doctrine was not known in the Christian faith until the mid-5th century after Augustine confabulated this from his novel, "the City of God" where "hell" is mentioned for the first time in Western literature.

6, Criticism: "The doctrine of the Salvation of All is the stretched-out exegesis that has no foundation in Scripture."

Answer: This is the error. Scripture says, "Let no one take you from the simplicity of Christ. There are over 100 scripture references on the Salvation of ALL that you can locate on the Internet. Here are just a few:

John 12:32. "I'll draw them all to Me."

Hebrews 10:10 "Christ..... they offered once and for all."

Lucas. 20:38. "Everyone lives to Him."

1 Corinthians 15:22. "Everyone should be made alive."

Actions (Acts) 2:17. "I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh."

1 Corinthians 15:28 "that God can be altogether."

1 Timothy 4:10. "Christ.... the Savior of all men."

1 Timothy 2:3. "he will have everyone to save himself."

Roman.11:32 "God concluded ALL in unbelief that He could have mercy on ALL."

John 12:42. "I came not to judge, but to save the world (EVERYONE)."

1 Timothy 2:6 "given a ransom for all"

John 4:32 "The Father sent the Son to be the Savior of the world (ALL)."

7. Criticism: There are many scriptures on the Internet that refute Universal Salvation.

Answer: Perhaps, but I am willing to say that careful scrutiny of those translations will find word meanings that ought not to be there in many of them. There are also many scriptures on the Internet that demonstrate Universal Salvation, the most important of which is the Bible, itself. We determine Biblical truth by scripture interpreting scripture. There are up to 100 scriptures in the Bible that confirm that God saves all in His Timing. There are none who confirm that God does not save All. Not one. All that assume to say so are mistranslations. See my book. "The Church That Satan Built and the Bible Satan Wrote," a free download in the Books section of our website at www.walkinginpower.org for more confirmation.

Examining those who insist on hell and damnation as a doctrine we find the following flaws in their arguments:

1. they take the verses mistranslated as "hell" and "damnation", "eternal judgment", "everlasting punishment", translated as true verses, and they are scriptures manipulated by Augustine and his cohorts who, as I have demonstrated earlier in this writing, have taken key Greek definitions and manipulated their true meanings.

2. they use and rely on translations that have not been questioned for centuries already when Protestants left the Catholic Church and took their Bible with all of its doctrines with them.

3. they totally disregard the Statements of Faith of the First 5 Councils of the early church, which covered approximately the first 500 years of the history of the early church, where, in their Statements of Faith there is not one church Council ever mentioning the need to teach hell, damnation, eternal torment, or eternal punishment as eternal truths that should be taught and these doctrines accepted as part of The Christian Faith..... clearly and conspicuously absent.

4. They do not consider the archaeological evidence that the doctrine of hell and damnation was not commemorated in catacombs by funerary art for more than 400 years of the catacomb burials of Rome, Constantinople or Jerusalem. All other great themes of the Bible were commemorated around every decorated tomb, but not a single tomb was found with the funerary art of hell and damnation. Why? Because the doctrine was not known in the first 500 years of the early church.

5. Many of the major early Church fathers were Universalists among whom was the preeminent Origen, claimed, historically, to be the next greatest Exegete of Scripture after Paul. A survey of the early "Church Fathers" will demonstrate that they all accepted Universal Salvation by Christ as taught by Origin, with the exception of Tertullian, Augustine, and Celsus, the latter being a non-Christian.

6. Only one scripture is necessary to prove that God saves ALL. It is 1 Timothy 4:10. Why? As scripture says, "God is not a man that He should lie to." (Numbers 23:19). God says so. That settles it. How many times does God have to tell you? Isn't once enough?

8. Criticism: Those who preach the Salvation of all place too much emphasis on the love of God and minimize the wrath of God.

Answer: Only the opposite is the truth. Many theologians minimize God's love and comfortably minimize it to emphasize His wrath and judgment. The doctrine that God does not love all people and does not want to save all, is prevalent throughout most confessional churches but we find its origins in Roman Catholicism and Calvinism, doctrines of men against whom Scripture warns.

Therefore we ask:

"Is God able to save all men, but unwilling? or Does God want to save all men, but is not able?"

If he preaches, teaches and believes that God wants to save all men, but is not able, this is an indictment against the power of God.

If you preach, teach and believe that God is able to save all men, but unwilling, this is an indictment against the love of God.

Peter said about God's good will that "God does not want that any man should perish, but that all men come to repentance." (2 Peter 3:9) Do you believe that God will have His Will?

About the ability of God, the Apostle Paul wrote that God "is able to save the uttermost." (Hebrews 7:25)

We conclude that God is both willing and able to save all men and, indeed, will save all men". - Harvey Turnage

"The things of the flesh are the flesh and the things of the Spirit are the spirit."

PRELIMINARY COMMENTS:

Let me make it clear from the beginning of this discussion that I know that there are many good Christian men with a heart for God who are theologians, Bible scholars, pastors, evangelists, teachers, translators, and the like, who love God deeply and are sincere in their efforts and work of love for The Lord. This writing is not addressed or directed at them. Many of them have blessed me tremendously over the years through their scholarship.. I don't want you to misunderstand what I'm saying. In this discussion I am dealing with historically documented facts. I am not anti-Catholic or anti-Protestant, I am for the truth. Christ did not go to the Cross for lies. He went to the Cross for the truth. in this writing, I address my comments to the religious "systems" that Satan has created in the minds of men, and in the process of doing so, seducing translators, and scholars, equally, in the subversion and desecration of the scriptures by changing the meanings of words to fit their educational and doctrinal upbringings and bringing confusion and division through their variant theologies; in so doing, perverting the people's understanding to believe those things that the Holy Spirit never intended to be taught, the end of which is the Apostasy of the church against which the Apostle Paul warned. The religious system of these false churches is Satanic, yes, Satanic in origin and I will explain shortly why Satan has used Christians to divide the church through conflicts of doctrine, confusion, whims of interpretation of verses, traditions of men, doctrines of demons and errors of judgments. Jesus said that we should judge something, if it be from God, by the "fruit". He said, in Matthew 7:17-19 The Americas Bible:

17 "Thus every good tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears bad fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit. 19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

and in,

1 Corinthians 3:15

15" If anyone's work is consumed by fire, he will suffer loss; and if he sins, he will be saved, yet as by fire."

How many scriptures tell us that the Holy Spirit came to tell us that God will save everyone? There are at least 100 scriptures in the Bible that declare to us that God will save everyone. There is one Scripture, in particular, which is the True Gospel of Christ and it is this:

1 Timothy 4:10

10 For this is why we labor and strive, because we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers.

This scripture alone is enough to believe that God will save everyone. No other scripture is needed. God has spoken. The Holy Spirit is the author of the Scriptures. He is the Spirit of Truth. How many scriptures are necessary for a person to believe. God cannot lie. Only one verse is enough. This scripture clearly says, that God will save everyone. Now, I promise you that some scholars will say, "This means that he will save everyone who comes to Christ and accepts Him." It is impossible to come to Christ or "accept Him" or make a decision for Christ in order to participate in His salvation. This is not biblical. It is impossible to come to Christ by a decision of your own.. Listen to the words of Jesus: John 12:32

2 "And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw all to myself."

and also,

John 6:44. The Bible of the Americas

44 "No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me calls him, and I will raise him up on the last day."

Why is it that some Bible scholars and translators will not take God at His Word and believe what the verse says if it is translated correctly, as it is true for the verse of 1 Timothy 4:10? Do you not realize that if you do not believe and receive this verse only as the truth, then you do not believe the whole Bible, you only believe some of the Bible? These are they who want us to follow them and let them interpret the Bible for us. These are they who believe that their education confers upon them the right to lead us and teach us what they have learned through what they have learned and read through their denominational lenses or seminary traditions. How can you trust them if they deny the truth of this verse of universal salvation and claim that it is false? This is exactly what they do. There are many more verses than this verse. What will they do with them? This is the problem that arises when translators and Bible scholars become defiant in not wanting to admit the truth of what God's Word says because it is contrary to their doctrinal education. Can you see the problem with the end time church? There are those who are Pharisees and do not know that they are Pharisees. I can remind you that the Pharisees claimed to love God and immersed themselves in religious doctrine but Paul said that they did not know God and needed to get saved. (Romans 10:1-3) They held that only they should be the arbiters of the interpretation of the scriptures because only they studied hermeneutics, apologetics, exegesis, eschatology and all the other methods of man, with their rules of interpretation, which "qualified" them to interpret and teach scripture. What about the witness of the Spirit to the common man? Did not Jesus use 12 common men as apostles? Or did He use 12 theologians or Bible scholars? The Spirit-filled Christian, led by the true Spirit, however, knows that the Holy Spirit is the sole arbiter of the truth and interpretation of Scripture, and knowing the truth of a verse, all the believer has to do is ask the Holy Spirit and he will answer with the truth. There is no need for these academic devices from men. The early church proved this to us. They did not even have a complete Bible to read from or study. The written scriptures were not codified into the Canon of books that we call the Bible, today, until about 430 A.D. . God did not call 12 literate Bible scholars or theologians to be apostles, he called 12 ordinary men, some of whom were not educated. Scripture tells us not to let anyone take us from the simplicity of Christ. The Holy Spirit alone is quite able and willing to lead you into all truth.

There is, however, an element of scholars, translators and teachers of the Bible, however, whose mind is shadowed by religious spirits, Pharisaical spirits , and by the spirits of the Antichrist, and who comply with doctrinal errors and heresies that they will defend stubbornly due to their need to be right at all costs to justify their existence, when the truth of the Word and their interpretations appropriately using scripture to interpret scripture, is right in front of them. It is to this element within the church that this writing is directed since they pervert many of the faithful, doing Satan's work for him through the their false church system that Satan built over the centuries through his system of the denominational divisions of the body of Christ. This is not something to be taken lightly because Christ did not go to the Cross for lies. He went to the Cross for the truth. The root of Apostasy, appearing in the church through errors of thought and belief, came from this religious system.

1 John 4:6 English Standard Version

6 We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. (See Romans 8:16)

The Apostasy is a man-made creation and it arose from years and years of "scholarly" research, discussion, debate, and reinterpretations of the Word, leading, in many instances to hopefully unintentional subversive revisionism and confusion. Their centuries of theological debates and teachings to the faithful of ideas and concepts and false doctrines gave birth to The Apostasy. Most Christians today will consider these churches, their Bible colleges and seminaries as acceptable. God does not. The proof is that many of them have lost their way, ordaining homosexuals as ministers of the Gospel, approving abortions, serving communions that, in the Scriptures are forbidden to take (more on this later in this writing), and individualizing doctrines from the Scriptures to find the differences of their doctrinal formations, the sum of which that must divide the body of Christ, the church. Do you think that a system of diversified churches that brings division contrary to the Word of God is led by the Holy Spirit? Even their system of ordination is profane and non-Biblical, man ordaining man. This is not the way of Scripture, which says that a man is "called", "anointed" and "appointed" by the Spirit of God who alone, has the power to ordain someone to a church office and does so through the multitude of witnesses and the Elders. You cannot be led by men and be led by the Spirit. God is not in it. God shares His Glory with no one. So there is something wrong with the earthly man - made churches.

Jesus told us that we judge that which is of the Holy Spirit by the "fruit". The fruit of false, denominational churches is division, doctrinal confusion and controversy, and in some, doctrinal "strange fire" and strong infiltration by the religious spirit, spirit of the Antichrist and the Pharisaic spirit of Satan. Speak to them of universal salvation through Christ (1 Timothy 4:10; Luke 20:38; 1 Corinthians 15:22, 28; 1 Timothy 2:5-6; John 12:32; 1 John 4:14; 1 Corinthians 3:15), and many of them write articles against what these scriptures say, comfortably and summarily rejecting and neglecting them and accepting blindly the translations without studying the Greek manuscripts from which the translations are made. Why? The attitude is that the translations are well done and the matters have been settled long ago, or some say or think. The Word substitutions with the writings of the New Testament on the subjects of hell, condemnation and judgment are, unfortunately riddled with controversy I once read an article by a theologian who was criticizing the fact that many evangelicals seemed to put too much emphasis on "root" meanings of words. Astounding! The Holy Spirit is the author of Scripture and He says what He means and He means what He says. Very often, root meanings of words can lead to deep rhema revelations. This is the work of the spirit of Satan and of subversive revisionism, which, over the centuries through the minds of scholars and translators, diluted the meanings of some words of scripture so that the verses came to mean something that the Holy Spirit never intended them to say. When scholars and theologians remain deep in the study and analysis of human systems such as theology, hermeneutics, soteriology, pneumatology, exegesis, eschatology, and other academic devices by which to gain knowledge and guide their walk of faith, little do they realize that they are bogged down in mental exercises to try to penetrate the Word of God. Mind is soul. These endeavors are all soulical and of limited value, for the Spirit of God is a Living Being and to be experienced, not to be intellectualized or analyzed. Jesus did not say, the things of the soul are soul....although they are. He said, "the things of the flesh are flesh, and the things of the Spirit are spirit." (John 3:6) Yet, these academicians would have us believe that their systems of learning and analyses of the Word of God qualify them to lead us while they park themselves in Baal-anointed churches that divide themselves from each other. These are the creators of The Apostasy that has rendered the end-time church impotent and powerless, wallowing in the concepts of mind and reducing the Christian Faith to a religion rather than a Confession of the Person of Jesus who Lives. These are they who have led the churches into spiritual impotence and have turned the Christian faith into an academic pursuit rather than an experiential spirituality of bringing Kingdom power to the Earth. Many of them are blind Pharisees.

There was a time when the Israelites entered into sin during their journey in the desert of Kadesh-Barnea and the Holy Spirit lifted from hovering over the Tabernacle and camp. The pillar of light and fire representing the Holy Spirit moved outside the camp. Moses left the camp and moved ' under the light and set up his tent under the light and fire of the Holy Spirit. His message to the Israelites was, "I am going where the Spirit is!" We need to learn to do the same.

How did all these happen? Here are some reasons:

1. Satan has put a spirit of stupor over the church so that the majority in the church does not recognize or believe in the need for spiritual warfare.
2. In 1993 when I was living in Nebraska, a well-known denomination did a review of pastors in all their churches in the State of Nebraska, asking the pastors if they believed Satan even existed? My pastor then showed me a letter received from the State Superintendent of the denomination, who informed him that 72% of the pastors who responded said they did not believe that Satan exists or that demons exist. Multiply this by the condition of the end-time church on a national scale, and you can easily see that the church is doctrinally asleep, and incapable of discerning the signs of time or war with Satan.
3. The church in freedom makes little or no attempt at spiritual warfare, if any, and they do not care about this either. The excuse I commonly hear is "I'm not called by God to do this"., or I don't have a place to do this. ", or "My Scripture tells me that "the battle is The Lord's" and, therefore, I don't have to get involved". These convenient excuses are not acceptable to God. It is true that Scripture says, "The battle is the Lord's" but in Jeremiah 51:20, God speaks to us and says, "You are my battle axe, my weapon of war."

It seems that most of the churches hold verses like this without too much importance, although Jesus in Mark 16:17 said , "You will drive out demons in My Name." How many demons have you cast out, lately? I think it should be apparent that the vast majority of Bible scholars, translators and teachers, in leading the people of their denominations and the carnal churches, working almost continually at the level of the soul, have never cast out a single demon. They are real, you know. The intellectual approach to things of faith, subversive revisionism of what the church should be, and a systematic theology approach to understanding the scriptures, are all works of the "flesh" and mind (soul) in the aspect of being called "the Spirit". It is the carnal man at his best. It is a "spirited" effort, that no one can deny, but it is of the wrong spirits. . It is a testimony that the Neo-Pharisees of our time have little or no understanding of what "The Spirit" is or how He works. They have little or no idea that they are in a spiritual battle for the souls of men. They give lip service to the existence of Satan and demons, but most have never experienced the kingdom of darkness with which they work and serve, not knowing it. The war of the Ages is not true to most of them. It's not real to them. Many of them realize that the "war" is for their very own souls and they do not realize that the war is for the souls of men and that when the spirits minister, they minister against the soul and already through the soul-man. The soul (mind, will, emotions) is the battlefield of the spiritual war with Satan. They ignore the soul and ignore Satan and his fallen angels and his demons. It is the same kingdom of darkness that built the artificial churches and theological systems in which they function, work and support, doing Satan's work for him as he works silently in the background. The fruit is division. The fruit is confusion in doctrinal opinions. The fruit is unbelief in Satan and demons. The fruit resists the Holy Spirit and the Baptism of the Holy Spirit in most of those denominations. The fruit is the formation of the "Christian" religion. Man has made a religion of the Christian faith, some complete with rituals, sacraments ceremonies and liturgies, none of which appear in Scripture and about which there is no command of Scripture and none of which please God. In the Old Testament, God referred to these things as "strange fire". The "system" is an entire conspiracy of Satan, carried out by men in uniform, although, perhaps, with good intentions and sincerity.... but honestly they are deceived. How can they possibly bring people into the Kingdom, when many of them reject the things of the Kingdom and have never experienced Kingdom power or authority, Kingdom gifts of the Spirit, the Baptism in the Holy Spirit, tongues, prophecy, healing, deliverances , and have experienced only their own forms of denominational righteousness before God, how, I say, may they ever be so presumptuous to believe that you have something to offer to people other than the milk of the Word, rejecting the meat of the Word.

These are the Pharisees of our time. They have not learned that the Christian Faith is a confession, not a religion, and that confession is about the Person of Christ Jesus who is a Living Person of the Godhead that can be personally experienced and spoken to. They have not learned that The Christian Faith is a New and Better Covenant in Christ (Hebrews 8:6), a covenant with a Living Person, Jesus Who is called the Christ of God. They have not learned that because this Covenant, when truly received and internalized as a spiritual TRUTH, makes believers Spirit-filled, Spirit-led, Bible-believing true believers , able to walk and talk directly with Jesus, Himself, and dialogue with Him through the born-again experience and baptism in the Holy Spirit. He will talk to them about every biblical question, provide every spiritual need, give them every spiritual understanding, nurture every goal and destiny he has for them, deliver them and rescue them from every evil and teach them His honesty and integrity alone, not the righteousness of man. Christ is alive and willing to be intimately involved in the life of every Christian believer, and he does not need any average man to interpret the Word of God for his sheep. This is the work of the Holy Spirit who is alive and well on Earth and who, on this day today, visits all the churches to turn them from what they do and turn to Him, alone. The condition of the religious system of the Neo-counterfeit form of the Christian faith, but it is not real or genuine in the eyes of God . It is a soulical system of endeavor to make oneself acceptable to God. It is not God's standard. They who are "reached" in their "system" cannot realize that their very souls are in danger. He who ignores the soul ignores the demonic. How can they possibly lead anyone, not to mention believers, when they don't know that they don't know, when they don't know what the true gospel of Christ is, when they elevate the work of the intellect as "revelation" and "understanding" and resist the Holy Spirit. If they really "knew" the Holy Spirit, they wouldn't do what they do. They are, in most cases, devoid of the Spirit, which is why, in these last days, as a fulfillment of the prophecy of Joel 2:28, the Holy Spirit will move through the entire earth to release His Spirit upon all flesh to turn them from what they are doing. . This parallel system of false churches under the anointing of Baal ,anoints those who keep the baptism in the Holy Spirit and the gifts of the Spirit out of these denominations and non-denominational, carnal, non-Spirit filled churches. Many of these are the churches of the daughters of the Church of Rome. Many of these will be judged with her. For this reason, in Revelation 18:4, Jesus speaks, and says to the churches of Mystery Babylon, "Come out of her, My people, lest you share in her plagues." In other words, if they do not separate themselves from this "world church system", they will be judged not only of their own sins, but of the sins of their churches and religious systems, too. So in Revelation 18:11-13, Jesus gives the reason why: "They trafficked in slaves and with the souls of men." With their false methods and doctrines, they did not give men access to the Kingdom of God.

The functioning at the soul level of understanding of the Word of God can never be called "the spirit" and can never lead people to the Spirit or The Kingdom of God. This parallel church system to the True Church of Christ and the Spirit which is a spiritual entity and a single spiritual entity, created at Pentecost by the Holy Spirit and continuing to grow, can never be suppressed and is called The Remnant or The church of the Remnant. No religious system of men can supplant it or ever replace it or stand in its stead to lead people to Christ and the Kingdom. The parallel earthly churches that are Satan's counterfeit, acting through an intellectual, I knowledge leading , academic ascent to Christ, in most cases lacking the Spirit or the baptism of the Holy Spirit can never lead and never has led Christians along a straight path to The Kingdom, what Isaiah called the "straight highway". The path led by the man-made churches has always been a mixture of man's righteousness and "truths" with God's Righteousness and Truths. It is an approach of the soul, not a true Christian faith as given by Christ, the Apostles and the Holy Spirit in the Book of Acts but a forgery, a soulical endeavor and the soul is not the spirit of man. . The soul, not yet being saved and in the process of being saved (Romans 12:2), is the place where Satan has access to the mind, as the Holy Spirit has access, also. It is the place where Satan's war against God takes place for the soul of the person. It is the battlefield of spiritual warfare. Again, not to ignore it, as most theologians, pastors, professors and Bible scholars do, for they are as mortal as we are. . You should not ignore Satan and what he tries to do in a person's life. Did not Jesus say: "be sober, be vigilant, because Your Adversary, the Devil, prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for whom he can devour." (1 Peter 5:8) Jesus said that the Christian believer or others are candidates to be "eaten" by Satan. Jesus said that Satan is dangerous to your soul. Really? So why is it that most of the false churches do not teach you how to defend yourself, do not teach you the principles of spiritual warfare, well defined in the Scriptures, why do they not teach you how to protect yourself, nor instill in you the need to do so? The reason is because most of them do not know how to do so, themselves. But they want to lead the masses with their theological opinions, while the majority wallow in their own ineptitudes of the soul, lacking any knowledge of how to give a touch in-The-Spirit. Why? There's only one reason. They have become part of the "system", and the "system" is Satanic and serves to keep people away from the things of the Spirit of God and they are dumbed-down by the "system's" demonic spirits and do not recognize it. . Of course they do not know and most can not teach him. "How can Satan drive out Satan?", Jesus said .

(Matthew 12:26) How have so many Christian believers gotten caught up in such a religious "system" of false churches and allowed themselves to be led by them? There is only one answer: Christ and His Spirit were never sought in the Spirit-to-spirit covenant with Him in the first place. They did not understand the need. They were not given the message. False churches minimize the gospel and make people depend on them to justify their existence. They have little or no discipleship or formation in Christ, little understanding about the things of the Spirit or the Baptism in the Spirit, little or no understanding of spiritual warfare, nor do they see a need for it. Their souls are wide open for the silent spiritual attack, and Satan has done this, thoroughly, during the past six centuries from the Reformation until now. The result has been his masterpiece called "Christianity". Satan, in effect, has tried to hijack the "Christian" faith in order to turn it into an earthly, false and empty-handed and empty-headed church devoid of the Holy Spirit, "the system" of religious beliefs and theologies. These are they who presumed to be the definitive interpreters of the Word of God, although in most cases, lacking the Spirit of God. Like the old Pharisees, they don't know that they don't know. How, then, can they lead someone? Are they saved? As I said before, salvation is a free gift, not earned or deserved. The scripture says, "Whosoever will, let him come to the waters".(Revelation 22:17). God only knows. Are they sanctified? If sanctification is by the Spirit and a person does not allow the leading of the Spirit through the "born again" experience and Baptism in the Spirit, that would remain to be seen. I don't judge people. Based on evidence from history and the testimony of Scripture, it is evident that any Spirit-filled, informed Christians can easily judge the "system". My message is that we have all been apostate to some degree in the past, but when we come into the knowledge and revelation of the Truth, we have an obligation before God to walk away from such darkness and walk into the Light of Christ and His Spirit through acknowledgement of our sin of apostasy, contrition and repentance, and fruit meet for repentance. It is not an intellectual option. It is a spiritual obligation.

4. Each denomination has a Constitution without exception. That Constitution is made up of artificial rules that all members must subject themselves to in order to be a member of the denomination. This is denominational "law". Rules and norms are "the law" Every denomination has them. It does matter to God whether one walks according to the Old Testament Law or denominational law , in God's eyes, law" is the law. The message of the entire book of Galatians is that we cannot be under law and grace at the same time. God is not in it. We must walk by grace, alone. It's a commitment. Paul told the Galatians that they were "bewitched" that they were under a spell of religious witchcraft even if they didn't know it. The Pharisaic types had moved in the church to try to bring them back to the Old Testament Law. Denominationalism is self-righteous. The members of these churches are made to walk according to a denominational law and grace at the same time. The Book of Galatians forbids this. It cannot be according to law and grace. We are saved by grace alone, through faith alone. One might say, "Where is this denominational "law" that you speak of?. I have never heard of such a thing and I have been in my denomination's church for years." The answer is this: Every denominational church has a Constitution. That Constitution includes rules and norms to which the member of the church must submit, observe and obey in order to be a member of the denomination. If you would like to see the Constitution of your denomination, ask your Pastor where you can get a copy of it to read. Many denominations have a copy of it on the Internet. Read it and note the requirements for members to obey and to agree and conform to in order to be a member of the denomination. These are their "laws". You'll see for yourself, what I'm talking about. Several years ago, I was asked the minister to a pastor of a denominational church about the need to receive the Baptism in the Holy Spirit. He listened cordially for about an hour. At the end of the hour, I asked him if he would like to receive the Baptism in the Holy Spirit. He turned down the offer, saying he had to think about it and wasn't sure he understood. I told him that the Satanic spirits were ministering to him in his thought life, keeping him on a walk of mixed law and grace. He denied that his denomination had "laws." He cordially declined. I warned him that the Holy Spirit had sent me minister to him. I had traveled a long distance to obey The Spirit, and that I perceived in my spirit that he was missing the hour of his visitation of the Spirit. He smiled with satisfaction and replied, "If I lost it this time, I would have other opportunities to have visitations of the Spirit, again." His faithful congregation had expected him to receive the Baptism in the Holy Spirit. Many had already received it, and they wanted their church to be filled with the Spirit. Their pastor could not accommodate them. Over the next two years, his preaching dried up, people began to leave, church attendance dropped, and his denomination removed him from the church. I had earlier, after his rejection of the Holy Spirit, gone to his denomination's website and read their Constitution. I counted about 253 rules that members were forced to keep and observe, making them "laws" if he could only see it with spiritual eyes. Two years later, his denomination removed him from the church. The Holy Spirit had written "Ichabod" over the back door of the church. This Hebrew expression from the Old Testament is translated, "The Glory has departed."

The first question I ask is "What happened to the false churches and how did it happen?" it has failed to evangelize the masses, denominationalism divides the church when Acts Chapters 1 and 2 tell us that the church did everything in unity and one accord. Theologians argue and disagree about their theologies which bring more confusion to the church-at-large, and church attendance and participation drop considerably as the years go by. Indeed, as one can see on the Internet and in other public places, it is not fashionable or popular to be a Christian anymore. But it is a privilege to be of the Kingdom of God.

What has happened to the man-made churches can never be understood unless it is perceived from the point of view of spiritual warfare. Jesus said, "The things of the Spirit are the spirit," What he meant was that spiritual things are discerned spiritually, not intellectually. The mind is the soul. All this has to do with the kingdom of darkness and its efforts over the centuries to overthrow and sabotage the body of Christ on the Earth.

It cannot be understood unless you take God at His Word that tells us that there is an invisible world there, a parallel dimension in which there are malevolent spirits at work to bring down humanity. This is a matter of Divine revelation. If you don't believe it's the truth, you don't believe the whole Bible.

The second question you have to ask is on the subject of the "anointing" and what happened to them. How did Satan replace the first, holy anointing with his profane anointing?. There are holy anointing and profane anointing, according to which kingdom they are manifested from. "Anointing" is the obtaining of power from the Holy Spirit to authorize a manifestation of the Kingdom of God and make something actualize or realize in the Kingdom for the Glory of God and His goal. There are profane and false anointing, empowerments of Satan and his spirits to make something actualize or realize a manifestation of the kingdom of darkness for the work to bring down the Kingdom of God on Earth and to destroy its goals.

I will now return in time to ancient history to explain how the anointing, also called "unctions", good or bad, can be transferred by touch, inheritance, good actions or impartations of The Spirit through laying on of hands, or even bad actions such as witchcraft, sorcery, magic or the functions of the occult. With this background of the understanding, let's start a historical discussion.

When the Roman Emperor, Constantine founded the Roman Catholic Church in 325 A.D. he insisted that all the pagan religions of the Empire be assimilated into it so that there would be one church in the Empire. The last pagan state religion of the Roman Empire was Mithraism, the worship of the Sun god and fertility worship, traced back to Babylon as the worship of Baal. Along with other pagan religions, it was brought into His Catholic Church. He discovered that they would not leave their religious practices, so he told them, in essence, that they could keep their practices but they had to change the names of their gods to Jesus and Mary. Thus, the sin of syncretism, the mixing of the things of God with pagan practices, desecrated the church of Rome from its very beginning.

Soon after, the Bishop of Rome, Damasus I, was appointed by Constantine to preside over the Catholic Church. At that time, in Babylonia, the High Priest of the Babylonian Mystery religion of Baal worship, Attalus, was dying of cancer and had no living heirs. He told his Tribunal that he wanted permission to give his title "Sumo Pontifice" meaning "Supreme Pontiff" or "Pope" to Constantine, the Emperor of Rome. When he died, a delegation brought the Title papers to Rome to present them to Constantine and the delegation left to go back to Babylon. It is important to understand that this title had attached to it negative witchcraft anointing on the Babylonian priesthood Title and also a witchcraft anointing of a pagan mystery religion. Constantine, considering the title to be pagan and belonging to a High Priest of a pagan sacramental mystery religion, decided that he did not want the title. Damasus said to him, in essence, 'I will take it'. Constantine gave the title to Damasus, and Damasus became the first Pope of the Catholic Church. As a side, Catholics love to claim that the Apostle Peter was the first Pope and that their ecclesiastical authority descends from him. Nothing could be farther from the truth. Firstly, the Roman Catholic Church did not even exist at that time and the early Christians did not form a formalized church or religion at all. They were communities or congregations of Christian believers who met in homes. Secondly, the only model for the true church is the home church. Thirdly, there were two meetings of the early church in which they assembled to discuss doctrines and how scriptures were to be interpreted, and who presided over the first and second meeting? Was it Peter? No. It was the Apostle James. IF anyone should have been the first Pope if ever there was a need for one, it would have been James, even though Peter was in attendance.

Getting back to our story about what happened in Rome around 325-369 A.D., it was sometime during that period that Damasus decided that he would take on the title of Supreme Pontiff. However, that title had a Babylonian witchcraft anointing upon it, so through Damasus's willingness to receive the title, the Baal worship witchcraft anointing. one with the worship of Mithra for many years previous, as Roman soldiers in Silesia brought the Mystery Babylon religion to Rome where the name was changed to the worship of the Sun god Mithra. It was one and the same as the worship of Baal. Mithra was Baal. It was now brought into Constantine's Catholic Church, and Damasus, who had become its bishop, now received that Babylonian title and the profane anointing of the Pontiff, a title every Pope in history has used to this present day in his ministry as the head of the Catholic Church.

However, a great spiritual problem arose from the great importation that few who do not understand spiritual warfare and the transference of anointing, would hardly understand unless they ask the Holy Spirit to confirm to them what is written here. The Babylonian witchcraft anointing was transferred to Constantine when he first received the title, but he renounced it later. However, when the Babylonian pagan witchcraft anointing was transferred to Constantine, it remained 'on him because he initially agreed to receive it, and as a result, the Babylonian religion was "married" to the Roman State that was incarnated in him. Babylon was now united and wed to the Roman State and has been ever since. The historians got it wrong. The Roman State did not die in the 700's A.D.. It simply had a change of clothes into religious garb and went indoors to become The Vatican State, ruling worldwide and yielding tremendous Papal Babylonian power as it continues to be the Roman Empire in Babylonian priests clothing. .

Babylon and its profane sacraments and profane unctions were also married to the religion of the Roman Catholic Church through Damascus who received 'the title of Pontiff. The Babylonian anointing settled upon him and as he laid hands to commission Cardinals, Archbishops, Bishops, and they in turn laid hands upon Monsignors, Catholic priests and people, that Babylonian witchcraft anointing spread worldwide. In these end times, The Babylonian High Priest of Rome, the last Pope, will become the False Prophet of the Book of Revelation, and unite all of the false churches and pagan religions into one world religion and bring the Antichrist, the "Son" of Satan, to power as the Dictator of the New World Order to enslave all of mankind.

The false anointing has been transmitted to all Catholics ever since. Have you ever wondered why so many Catholics resist the Baptism in the Holy Spirit and do not read the Bible? The reason is that after receiving the Babylonian sacraments, they have the anointing of the antichrist spirit of Baal upon their lives. What Satan did here, in effect, was to marry the Babylonian Mystery religion to the Roman Empire State and to the Roman Catholic Church. When things ended, Constantine did not Christianize the Roman Empire, he paganized 'the Christian faith in Rome and the world, because the false anointing is transferred to whoever will receive it.

For centuries the Roman Church expanded and with it, accepted ' Babylonian doctrines such as hell and damnation which became more refined around 400 -430A.D. by Augustine, a convert from Zoroastrianism, a religion that preached hell and damnation. He and Jerome were the two earliest Bible scholars of the Catholic Church. Historically it is documented that Augustine confabulated 'the doctrine of hell and damnation to "Christianize" The Roman State and made it acceptable to the Pope, who sanctioned it and it began to be taught in the Catholic faith approximately about 400-450 A.D. Before this the doctrine was not known in the Christian faith. There is historical proof of this.

In the first 500 years of the early church there were approximately 5 Early church Councils that were believed to be held about every 100-125 years, to talk about the doctrines that had to be taught to the people and to formalize them in a published Statement of Faith at the end of each church council. This Statement was to be copied and distributed throughout Christendom and given to the churches so that the pastors would know what to teach the people. It is important to note that until about 500 A.D. the doctrine of hell and damnation did not appear in any of the 5 first church Council Statements of Faith, clearly absent, confirming that the doctrines of hell and damnation were unknown to the early church in its first 500 years.

Paul had warned in the Scriptures that the Apostasy would come "and now is," at the time of his writings. Apostasy is the compromising of the truth of the Word of God from what it was originally intended by the Holy Spirit for it to be understood, and the teaching and believing of errors of doctrine and faith in its stead. It's at its worst now, at this time in history. It is a matter of prophecy in The Word that must come to pass as all prophecy must be realized in Scripture.

Here's what happened in Rome. As the Roman church grew and spread, the Popes appointed Cardinals, archbishops, Bishops, Monsignors and priests to minister to the people. The commissions of the anointing were transmitted to each by the laying on of hands, as in the New Testament Book of James . With the laying on of hands on each person, the Babylonian witchcraft anointing was transmitted from the Pope to the Cardinals, to Archbishops, to the Bishops, to the priests and then to the laity (the congregation members) that the priests would lay hands on in order to impart the Catholic sacraments. Incidentally, sacraments are not mentioned in the Bible, only ordinances, and the sacraments were part of the Babylonian mystery religion and originated in Babylon.

When Catholic people receive the sacraments of infant baptism sprinkling, first communion, confirmation and other sacraments like communion, the Babylonian anointing transfers to the person receiving, and the Babylonian spirit begins its ministry of of false doctrine and indoctrination that can destroy the person or his walk of faith if there is no repentance and deliverance. They have to receive the ministry of deliverance. Often, becoming a born-again Christian is sufficient. Paul warns about this in 1 Corinthians, Chapter 10 where he says:

1 Corinthians 10:21 The Bible of the Americas

21 "You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons; you cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons."

Here, Paul was talking about the counterfeit communion common to the worship of Baal, which at the time of Paul was rampant in Israel. It is present in Israel today in small groups of Baal worshipers and it was never completely eradicated from Israel. Notice that Paul was saying that there is a counterfeit communion of bread, water and wine. The bread was a round, flat wafer that was referred to as the "disk of the sun" and this is used in many Catholic, Protestant and Orthodox churches today. Paul had more to say about it in 1 Corinthians 11:28-29:

1 Corinthians 11:28-30 :

28 "Therefore let every man examine himself, and then let him eat from the table and drink from the cup. 29 But it is a sin to eat and drink without correctly discerning the body of the Lord, for they eat and drink judgment unto themselves. 30 For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and many are asleep (dead)."

Paul continues his discussion of the communion of Baal in 1 Corinthians 11:28-30 and tells us that unless we discern the body, that is, the body of believers, the people with whom we assemble and agree to take communion with, and discern if the bread of the Lord truly is blessed as the body of the Lord, and instead, share without discerning the body and the cup, some develop disease and some die. Based on this, there are those pastors and theologians who refer to the round, flat sun disc communion wafer as the "death wafer".

The Roman church adopted this form of communion when it was formed in 325 A.D. by Constantine. It was brought into the Catholic Church by the Mithraic priests' forced conversion by Constantine, and The Baal anointing already wed to the Roman Church when Damascus received the title/anointing of Attalus, the High Priest of the Babylonian Mystery Religion after he died without heirs. However, they brought Baal anointing into the Roman Catholic Church in another way, also. It was through the assimilation of many pagan religions of the Roman Empire, but in particular, the final Pagan state religion of the Roman Empire, Mithraism. Mithra was the Sun god and fertility god of the Roman Empire, who had been brought into the Roman Empire by Roman soldiers who had adopted the religion during their stay in Silesia.

The worship of Baal originated in Babylon. When the religion was exported to Israel by Jezebel, the pagan queen of Israel and the wife of King Ahab, the name of the god remained Baal. When the religion was exported to India, the name of the god was changed to Mitra. When it was exported to Greece, the name of the god was changed to Dionysus. When it was exported to Italy, the name was changed to Mithra. It was the same God, as were the religious practices.

When the Catholic Communion and its Latin Vulgate Bible were adopted by the Great Reformationists of the 16th century, the Baal anointing transferred into the Protestant churches, and along with it, the religious spirits and spirits of the Antichrist and religious witchcraft of the Babylonian Mystery religion. Pastors and Bible scholars who have little or no understanding of spiritual warfare or anointing would have great difficulty in understanding or digesting the nature of this type of spiritual warfare as it aims to be subversive and a means of sabotaging local churches, their peoples, and their denominational organizations. Old Testament scriptures spoke of not moving the "boundary stones". These were literal stones that marked a person's property lines to prevent a neighbor from encroaching upon another's territory and thus try to claim it. It was part of Old Testament Law and God apparently gave it to protect people from others stealing land from them, Deliverance ministers will commonly recognize that when a person crosses the boundary lines between the kingdom of darkness and the kingdom of Light, that they have crossed over into Enemy territory, and open themselves up to spiritual attack from the Enemy. They have "moved the boundary stones", so to speak and if they have now, by their own choice and spiritual ignorance, encroached upon territory which is actually the possession and legal ground of the Enemy, such as false churches, Satan's position is, " If you are interested in something of my creation, I'm interested in you." Satanic ministry then begins with the spirit of religion at the helm.

Have you ever wondered why the rejection of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and the gifts of the Spirit is resisted by so many denominations and their churches? It is the work of the religious spirit, the spirit of the Antichrist, and the lying spirit, all the satanic demonic spirits of Satan. The religious spirit cannot resist the Holy Spirit who, today is in all Christian churches that witness the power of the Kingdom as a realization of the prophecy of Joel 2:28. That religious spirit will activate the "flesh" of the members of the faithful to strive against the Holy Spirit. (Galatians 5:17) it makes them resist the things of the Holy Spirit, even the Baptism in the Holy Spirit which is why many denominational churches do not believe that it exists or that it is for today. Then they see movements of the Holy Spirit in their faithful as healings, liberation and changed hearts, and members and pastors believe that the presence of the Holy Spirit is a sign that approves what they are doing. Nothing could be further from the truth. The Holy Spirit is visiting in all the churches at this end of age to get people out of what they are doing , and into Him. What's the problem?

1. Historically and hereditarily they are defiled and defilement carries the profane anointing of Baal at the same time. This quenches the anointing of the Holy Spirit who shares His glory with no one. The Holy Spirit then lifts off of the congregation and backs off.
2. Most of them have a communion of the round, flat, wafer of the sun disc of Baal worship.
3. Many of them resist and reject movements of the Holy Spirit and the Holy Spirit Baptism.
4. They preach the false doctrines of hell and damnation, eternal torment, eternal punishment and many use the communion of Baal against which Paul warned.
5. There are two operational spirits in these churches, the religious spirit and the Holy Spirit and Jesus said, "No man can serve two masters."
6. They do not preach the original unchanging Gospel of the early church established by Christ, which is that Christ Saves all, Christ and will restore all, Christ will give all a new name, Christ will make all things new, and Christ will raise all to eternal life. This, alone, was and is the True Gospel given by Christ and in Scripture, God says "I change not".

7. Many of the theologians and Bible scholars, as well as pastors and professors, insist that Christian universalism is a heresy and that hell and damnation are correct doctrines. This is a blatant religious lie. They are simply parroting doctrine that they have been raised in. The doctrine of hell and damnation is from Satan the Devil and they don't know the history of the early Church, nor how spiritual warfare works, and I think the elders are not willing to learn in most cases. That argument falls apart when we consider the Word of God that Christ never preached a sermon on Hell, Paul never preached a sermon on Hell, none of the Apostles preached a sermon on Hell and, in fact, no pastor of the early church preached a sermon on Hell. Think about that!

The early history of the early church shows us that almost all the so-called Church Fathers, the disciples of the Apostles, preached Universal Salvation, the doctrine of the Apostle Paul (1 Timothy 4:10) who was, himself, a Universalist. After Paul, the greatest Father of the Church was Origen Adamantius, a disciple of the Great Church Father Clement of Alexandria, who was taught by the Great exegete, Tatian, who was taught by Lucian of Syria, the great canonical scholar who was taught by Macarius . These early church fathers were known to preach universal salvation , the salvation of all beings in Christ,. History shows that of the many Church fathers who knew Origen or read his writings during the next 200-300 years of the early church, almost all supported the doctrine of Universal Salvation, with the exception of Tertullian and later, Augustine, who considered themselves Christians, and Celsus, who vehemently opposed Origen but was not a Christian. The doctrine was the predominant doctrine of the Christian faith in its first 500 years, until Augustine introduced hell and damnation, and led the early church into a 1000-year period of darkness and despair with his false doctrine of hell and damnation that he learned in his Zoroastrian religion as a child and believed all of his life. He was a convert to Catholicism. For almost 1500 years thereafter, their false doctrine of hell and damnation, eternal punishment and eternal destruction spread to the body of Christ, the church, all over the world, a tailspin of doom, sadness, hopelessness, despair and fear of death and what will happen to believers after they die. It probably caused huge numbers of people to lose their faith in Christ, and to fear Him, instead. The Christian Faith became a "religion" instead of a relationship with a loving God who loved unconditionally and would save EVERYONE. Jesus said that we judge something if it is from God by the fruit.

The fruit of the teaching of such doctrinal filth has caused billions of people to have sleepless nights, terrorizing innocent children who could not behave well enough to please God, and caused the people to work hard and do "good works" to earn their way to Heaven and to God, spending hours doing "penance" and spending countless nights worrying if they were being able to satisfy Him enough, causing a loss of faith and abandonment of their commitment to Christ because they simply could not see how they could meet or comply with "His" expectations of what they should be. Many abandoned their faith, believing that they were not worthy of a Holy God, believing that therefore they would have to face an eternity of hell and damnation. If you asked a priest or pastor if you would go to heaven when you died, in most cases they would answer: "I don't know." It made people lose their love for God. Who could love a God who puts sinful people alive in a spiritual crematorium forever? There is, perhaps, no worse doctrine that ever existed that has caused such suffering and despair than the doctrine of hell and damnation, a doctrine that has ruined thousands of lives for no reason at all. This heinous doctrine is responsible for keeping more people out of the Kingdom of God because they lost their faith and trust in Christ as the Living Savior and never heard that salvation was a free gift, not earned or deserved. They believed in the lies of religion that kept them out of the Kingdom. (Rev. 18:13) But God will still open a way for them. Love never fails.

The doctrine of hell and damnation is Satan's, and the church preaches it for him and does his work for him. Can you imagine? We have a sleeping church that cannot discern the heart of God and the sacrifice of Christ for ALL, and preaches Satan's doctrine about hell and damnation from the pulpits. God help us! It is a doctrine of demons! Paul warned against the doctrines of demons, the doctrines of men, and the traditions of men.

If the doctrine of Hell and damnation were true, I would believe that Christ would make sure that it was mentioned and warned about in every book of the Bible. On the contrary, there are no warnings about it in most books of the Bible and these doctrines do not appear historically in the Christian faith until sometime between 400-450 A.D., when Augustine introduced it into the Catholic Church and confessed that he colluded with others to confabulate it. Aren't these things meaningful to you? A statement by Augustine and his admission that he colluded with others to formulate it can be read on the Internet. The Pharisees, in the time of Jesus, promoted a similar doctrine that their progenitors learned in the Babylonian captivity, mixed with the belief in the Babylonian Mystery religion. We must bear in mind that the Pharisees were Kenites descended from the Canaanites, the seed line of Satan through Cain. (Genesis 3:15), and of the lineage of Zarah-Judah, the same lineage of the Caesarean emperors of the Roman Empire. To study the behavior of the Pharisees in the time of Jesus with their stubborn insistence on being correct in their doctrine, and trying to tell Jesus that He was wrong in His doctrine, makes us easily see that the same spirit Pharisaism is at work in many of the theologians and Bible scholars of today, who practice the same attitudes. They believe in "Christianity" as an intellectual endeavor to be comprehended, analyzed, codified into their doctrinal interpretations, and believe that their interpretations of the Word of God are correct, and should not be followed and accepted by all that they teach which is intellectual idolatry. It is not surprising, then, that the man-made churches of the end times are false churches led by religious spirits.

8. These churches are contaminated with false doctrines and lack the purity of God's Word in most cases with regard to the doctrines of salvation and judgment in particular. Are people saved? Those who receive Christ by grace through faith are surely saved. Salvation is a free gift. What they do, however, is to perpetuate false doctrines and terrorize their church members who can't understand how God can torture people forever because they couldn't live up to His expectations of what He wanted them to do although He created them imperfect, anyway. How can someone love God who creates people, knowing in advance all things, and that many will not be saved and that he will have to burn them forever? The scholarly doctrinaires of theology make a Holy God to become a capricious demigod or Demiurge, a god who has both good qualities and "darkness" in him. Do you really think God is like that? That is what the teaching of hell and damnation implies! That He should torture people forever? That he has an anger problem that is infinite like Him? That He should punish people forever and ever in the fire for sins that were committed in a finite period of time of existence on Earth? Where in "forever and ever" is the righteousness of God satisfied? And the churches in their darkness call this "The Gospel," the "Good News." For me, such beliefs are incredibly bad news!

The ministry of King Melchizedek, The Holy Spirit, is to look beyond sin to see the need and love people to life. Those who preach hell and damnation tell us that God the Father will look beyond sin to see the need of some, but not of others. How were you saved? God looked beyond your sin to see your need! The scripture says that God is not a respecter of people. (Acts 10:34) Of course, many are saved. Not by institutions or churches. God saves people. It is the Savior who saves.

This does not take from the fact that man-made denominational churches are not a problem. They are a big problem because their Baal -doctrines from Rome, who made rules and norms of conduct and belief, which are "law" became adopted by Protestants when the Protestant denominations broke away from Rome, causing them to do the same thing. They also have rules and norms of belief and conduct in their churches that make each and every one of them different from each other. The true church is a spiritual entity led by the Holy Spirit alone. Denominational churches are organized and operated by men, each having to arrange a Constitution of rules and norms that members must follow, which are "laws", and to God, law is law. It does not matter to God whether a person is under the Old Testament Law or some other man-made religious law. Law is law. The message of the entire Book of Galatians is that you cannot be under law and grace at the same time. God does not allow it. Paul had to go to the Galatians to correct them.

These are churches that have departed from the truths of the Word of God, and have done so for so long, that today, they can no longer recognize or accept the doctrines established by the early church as truths of The Spirit to be followed. Instead they oppose them as the Pharisees opposed Jesus. Why? It is the same Babylonian spirit. This spirit has divided the body of Christ in these churches for about 622 years at the time of this writing. Each denomination is different from every other denomination because it takes the position that "we have an exclusive doctrine or interpretation of the Word of God that separates us from you, and we believe that our doctrinal interpretations are correct and to be followed" which, of course, is, presumptuous arrogance because there is only One doctrine of Christ, and that it the Word of God itself which unites all men, and is for all men, and therefore to be interpreted in common-sense terms. just like the Pharisees at the time of Jesus, their position is rooted in pride. It is such a doctrinal position that every denomination must follow in order to justify their existence, and it creates its own form of righteousness before God. The people who participate in such churches are approving what these denominational churches do, and their very presence at their religious services is a testimony to others that they are there because they sanction what they are doing. They are witnessing to others, indirectly, a message saying, "I am here because I approve and sanction your teachings and beliefs by my presence here, endorsing your way of righteousness before God." But they don't realize what they're doing.

I have read that there are, in the world today, up to 30000 different denominations, which means that the denominational churches have established 30,000 different forms of man's righteousness before God. But this is not the righteousness of the Lord. It is the righteousness of men. God has a standard and He does not lower His standard because of man's ignorance. This, dear reader, is witchcraft in the church and the source is the Baal anointing that is in all man-made churches. Wherever there is confusion in the body of Christ that follows over the centuries, there is a certain witchcraft behind it. Witchcraft is the worship of Baal by the anointing that Constantine brought to the Roman State and Roman Catholic Church when he accepted the title of Babylonian Pontiff, that he received and accepted during the time before he gave it to' to Damasus I., the Bishop of Rome who was appointed the first Pope of the Roman Catholic Church of Constantine, which was established in 325 A.D. This is historically documented and you can do your own research to confirm this.

9. As a result of these profanations of the Christian faith and the "Christian" churches, the Holy Spirit brings judgment against them in Chapters 17 and 18 of The Apocalypse. In Chapter 17, he describes "the Mystery Babylon" the Mother of Prostitutes and of the abominations of the Earth". The word "Mystery" in the Greek of the New Testament, is the Greek word "mysterion", the equivalent of the Latin, "sacramentum", or sacrament, in the language of the Roman church. It's sacramental Babylon. Why do they call her that? The answer is because all sacraments originated in Babylon, the place where witchcraft first arose through King Nimrod, and then spread throughout the world. Therefore, Revelation 17 states that this religious system is the "mother of prostitutes". The prostitute churches that came out of it were her daughters, the Protestant confessional churches and those who separated from Rome, but continued to carry the anointing. God says they are prostitutes too. The chapter goes on to say that she was drunk with the wine of her "fornications", meaning that they propagated 'false doctrines. The word "fornication" in this chapter and elsewhere, refers to spiritual fornication, the spreading of false doctrines. The chapter says that she was drunk with the blood of martyrs. Who were these? These were almost 40 million born-again believers and Jews from the different nations of Europe, including Italy, Germany, Spain and Portugal, who lost their lives in tortures and executions for refusing to convert to Catholicism in the 400 years of the Great Inquisition of the Catholic Church during the Middle Ages. Rome has never been held accountable for these atrocities and genocides.

The Protestants had their own Inquisition as well. Why? They had the same Baal anointing passed down on them from their mother church, the Roman Catholic Church and their communion and Bible as well. In Genesis 1:11, we read that each seed reproduces after its own kind. The Pharisaical churches can only reproduce Pharisees, at least in doctrine. Chapter 17 follows this the "Mother" sits on seven hills. Those are known as the seven hills of Rome and the church of "St. Peter" sits on the second hill which is known as Vaticanus, meaning, "place of divination". The church, itself, was an ancient Temple of Jupiter, a a pagan Roman god, who in the Roman pantheon of gods was actually, Satan . Chapter 17 also says that its colors are purple and scarlet. Those are the colors of the cardinals and archbishops and bishops. The chapter follows this, "she rules over many waters," assuming that she has ecclesiastical authority over many nations. God then makes a statement, "I gave her time to repent, but she didn't." All the churches of Catholicism, and Protestantism, even with their carnal, non-denominational churches are "Mystery Babylon". United, they are The Strong Delusion ' of the end of the times of which The Bible speaks.

In the 18th Chapter of the Apocalypse, Jesus gives an order to all believers who are in the Catholic Church:

Revelation 18:4 The Bible of the Americas

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, lest ye partake of her sins, and lest ye receive of her plagues;

These are the words of Jesus. He says, Come out of her, My people that you not receive of her judgments." It's an order from the Commander-in-Chief, Himself. We must obey to avoid being judged of her sins, a judgment that will be severe and that will not give people access to the Kingdom of God.

In Revelation 18:13, Jesus tells us why they are being judged and destroyed by fire, because they trafficked in:

Revelation 18:13

13"cinnamon, and odors, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men."

Mystery Babylon is judged and condemned because it made slaves of some people and caused them lose their souls and not be given access to the Kingdom of God because they embraced her false teachings and pagan doctrines.

UNDERSTAND THE PHARISAIC DOCTRINAL ERRORS OF THE FALSE CHURCHES AND HOW THEY CAN THREATEN YOUR SALVATION

The doctrine of the Salvation of All (1 Timothy 4:10) and the Restoration of All (Acts 3:21) and the more than 100 scriptures of the Bible that support it, is well established by Divine Revelation in the Scriptures. If you take time to study the true meanings of the words translated as "hell", "damnation", "eternal judgment" and "eternal punishment", as described earlier in this writing, and then go to ancient secular Greek dictionary sources to see how the Greeks defined their words, it will become clear to you that all the scriptures on the subject of judgment and damnation are deliberately and intentionally changed to fit the doctrines of men. I know this because I spent 13 years of research on almost every verse on this subject in the Bible. doing word studies using multiple ancient sources. Then I translated them back using the appropriate definitions from the original Greek manuscripts used to make the translations. I found that roughly every verse that had to do with judgment, hell and damnation was mistranslated to say things that weren't there. Then I randomly examined a significant number of verses on arbitrary subjects and found that they were all reasonably translated from the Hebrew of the Old Testament and the Greek of the New Testament. What does this tell us? It tells us that all the scriptures about hell, damnation, and eternal judgment " were deliberately and intentionally changed by early Catholic translators and scholars and those that followed until now only presumed that the doctrines were correct and perpetuated their mistakes because the Latin Vulgate Bible had been used for about 1000 years before the Protestant Reformation, and no one had questioned the doctrine because it was widely accepted over those 1000 years.

The significance of these conclusions is that the doctrines of the salvation of all, what some call universal salvation and the restoration of all, are sound doctrines of the Bible are a matter of Divine Revelation. To speak against the salvation of all when it is clearly in the letter on the pages of your Bible, is non-divine speculation through intellectual rationalizations.

I recently saw an article by a theologian-translator on the Internet who extensively spoke in a 4-page article, why the word "all" does not mean "all". He argued that there are nuances of the meaning of the word "all" in the Scriptures. This is absurd. When God authors Scripture, He means what He says, and He says what He means. The definition of the Greek word "todos", meaning "all" means "all of all". I guess that says it "all". I am led to ask such people, "What part of the word " all" do you not understand?" Someone has to tell them that to intellectualize and rationalize the scriptures are exercises of mind and mental assent to the Word of God which is soulical , and Jesus said, "the things of the flesh are the flesh and the things of the Spirit is spirit." (John 3:6) Spiritual things are spiritually discerned, not intellectually defined. The spirit of man perceives, and the soul of man, reasons. Theologians, Bible scholars, translators and and the like make a practice of analyzing Scripture and reasoning out the nuances of interpretations but mind, will and emotion used for such purposes is operating in the soul-level and not the spirit-man where the Spirit of Christ indwells and witnesses . Thus Jesus' warning that the things of the flesh are flesh and the things of the Spirit are spirit. (John 3:6)

LEARNING FROM TREES

There were two main trees in the Garden of Eden, the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil and the Tree of Life. In the study of Typology, which is the study of "types" or representations in Scripture, The Tree of Knowledge represents the soul-man that reasons and the Tree of Life represent the Spirit of Christ, and the spirit-man who perceives of the Spirit and the Person of Christ. Why? Because Paul, by The Spirit, said in 1 Cor. 6:17, "He who is Christ's is one spirit with Him."(See also, 1 Cor.4:6) You cannot know Jesus by feeding on the Tree of Knowledge because Jesus is not at that tree, he is at the Tree of Life. Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Many theologians and scholars want to walk their walk of faith guided, mainly, by the knowledge they learn, relying on their own understanding and interpretations of the Word of God, many not even Baptized in the Holy Spirit so that they can discern the "rhema" revelations of the Spirit from the Word of God. Many have not yet learned or have considered that the Baptism in the Holy Spirit is the individual Pentecost experience needed by every Christian believer, and that it is a separate and distinct experience from the born-again experience. Both are necessary to perceive and walk in the fullness of the Holy Spirit and His gifts. It is a Scriptural requirement for all believers to have the fullness of the Spirit with which to perceive the truths of rhema revelation behind the written word of Scripture, the word of God. Without it, one cannot understand the depth of the revelations of the Word of God and The Spirit, which are often so conspicuously absent in many theological scriptural interpretations and writings. There is no spiritual power, no Kingdom power at the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. Satan was standing at that tree. Such can only be found at the Tree of Life.

Many denominationalists do not believe in the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. They walk through their spiritual life in half-power, missing the fullness of the Spirit, and then, they want us to listen to them and let them lead us because they think that their years of study and degrees earned, qualify them to lead, believing that their training has made them an authority in the handling of the Word of God and that it is in our best interests to blindly accept and trust what they teach us. With this, usually comes the smug arrogance that what they have been taught and walk in, is the one and only truth held for centuries and agreed by the vast majority of Bible scholars and theologians. What if the Holy Spirit does not agree? it is unthinkable to them that maybe, just maybe, they may be wrong in some of the things that they teach. Like the Pharisees of old, they do not find any need for the born-again experience or Baptism in the Spirit in many cases. They even tried to correct Jesus and challenge His doctrines. They, too, like the Neo-pharisees of today, believed that they were correct in what they were doing and teaching, and that they "knew" where things were at, spiritually. Again, Jesus called them "blind Pharisees." When it comes to spirituality, there are none so blind as those who will not see.

I do not doubt the sincerity of some, but many have the same pretexts of the ancient Pharisees, who insisted to Jesus that they "knew" the correct doctrine, and that Christ and His apostles, led by the Spirit, were wrong. Is this not what we see and hear, today, from some of these theologians and translators who are lacking the fullness of the Spirit? I have even read of some of them challenge the doctrine of the salvation of all and that some of them even mock or ridicule the idea that Christ would save and restore all, as if it were difficult or impossible for Him to do so. There is no place for this in the Christian faith, and it comes from pride and from the need to be correct in their doctrinal position. Some of them want to make you understand and believe that they, only, know what the Word of God says, and that, they alone, should be followed, listened to, and obeyed. They call those who believe in Universal Salvation by Christ, heretics, and what we preach, as heresy. No, it is not heresy. No, we are not heretics. Read The Word. Ask God to break demonic scales off of your eyes, ears, and heart. Be fair and open-minded to the truth, and you will learn by re-reading the New Testament scriptures, that Jesus preached universal salvation. (John 3:16-17). Paul preached universal salvation. (1 Timothy 3:10; 1 Tim.2:4) All of the Apostles preached universal salvation. It was the doctrine of the early church in its first 500 years. I recommend that every Christian read, "The Restitution of All Things: The Prevailing Doctrine of the Early Church in Its First 500 Years" by Pastor-Historian J.W. Hanson, 1872, an exceptional work of both historical evidence, archeological evidence, Scriptural analysis, and statements of the Early Church Fathers, as to the truth of the Salvation of all men, also known as Universal Salvation or Christian Universalism, not to be confused with the cult of Unitarian Universalism. In my experience, those who oppose these truths usually construct their arguments and defenses upon the Bible translations rather than going to the original manuscripts from which the translations are made to see the more appropriate and accurate words used and defined by the Holy Spirit before the translators find literary license to altar their meanings or their nuances of meaning.

The Pharisees of today, like those of the first century, could pray long hours, preach the Word, visit the sick, boast of their knowledge, fast for very long hours, and studied the Word of God, believing that they really knew the depth of the Word of God that can only be known when the Spirit of God brings forth the "rhema" word, that is, the revealed Word of the Spirit behind the written Word of God. This is impossible without the reborn experience and baptism in the Holy Spirit. The Word of God was not open to the Pharisees of old. The word of God is not fully open to today's Pharisees, either, as they insist on exalting their own understanding about the revelation of the Word of God by the Spirit of God. Not everyone knows the Spirit of God. Without the baptism in the Holy Spirit and the reborn experience, the fullness of the Word of God is not open to them, and many will thus resort to an intellectual search for the Word.

So it is with many theologians and Bible scholars who are among us, today, who try to presume themselves as the sole arbiters of doctrine and as protectors and defenders of people and their faith. Paul alluded to the Pharisees and the people of Israel in their beliefs, in Romans 10:1-3, saying that they had a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge, and that his prayer of them was that they would be saved. I can not and do not judge someone's salvation. This is between God and them. It is certain, however, that the Pharisees are still with us today, making a religion of the Christian faith. The Christian faith is not a religion. It is a confession in a Person, and His Name is Christ Jesus. The whole religion is the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and evil, that is, feeding on the wrong tree. How, then, can they lead us? They cannot recognize even the Babylonian system that most of them get caught up in, teaching their false doctrines and being used by Satan to do his work for him. The Holy Spirit warned against these religionists who will arise in the endtimes to deceive the elect, if it were possible:

2 Timothy 3:2-5 English Standard Version

2 For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, 3 heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, 4 treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, 5 having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people.

Often, today's Pharisaic religionists, with their doctrines, interpretations, and the teachings of men, simply will not take God at His Word and will not acknowledge that fact that there are over 100 scriptures of the Bible that say that God will save ALL in His timing. It's unacceptable to them. No matter what the scriptures say, they cannot be wrong. They won't allow it. Just like the Pharisees at the time of Jesus. They insist on dissecting every little nuance of the meaning of every word, often intellectualizing the Word and reducing it to a strictly academic search devoid of the Spirit and slacking to smear on it. Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, especially when reading their theological writings that insist on degrading the truth of the universal salvation of everything that is clearly declared in the Scriptures. Jesus referred to them as "whitewashed tombs filled with the bones of the dead." Jesus said to them, "It is from your father the Devil..."for they were Kenites, the descendants of the Canaanites who were the descendants of Cain. I don't call those with a Pharisaic spirit, today, Kenites in particular, but many of them have the same religious spirit in them that the Pharisees had. Paul said in the Scriptures, "Some people's sins are completely evident, not going before them to judgment, for others, their sins follow after." (1 Timothy 5:24) Many of them have the spirit of Pharisaism and the spirit of religion, trying to walk with the Holy Spirit.. They are always with us, at least in this period of time.

The presence of the religious spirit in every denominational church exists because denominationalism is Satan's creation. It's Satanic. Jesus said that you will know something if this be from God by the fruits. (Mt. 7:16). Fruit is the only criteria. The fruit of denominationalism is division. The Book of Acts tells us that the early church did everything in unity and one accord. (Acts 1:14; Acts 2:1; Phil.2:2). The division in the church, then, is contrary to Scripture. The division of the body of Christ is sin, and participation in denominationalism is the approval of sin by the very presence of the person among the faithful, that presence which is a witness of approval to all others present. Now here's the point: denominational religious spirit has a master and his name is Satan. Jesus said that "No man can serve two masters." Do I have to say more? There are an estimated 2 billion denominational Christians all over the world, who unconsciously, are being used by Satan to divide the body of Christ, doing Satan's work for him through self-deception, supporting Satan's side of spiritual warfare and not even knowing it. This, on the other hand, is a testimony and witness against the earthly, carnal church that is asleep and is not lead by the Spirit of God. It confirms that it is under religious witchcraft, led by the spirit of error. If this were not so, there would be no Apostasy. Such is the nature of spiritual warfare today. Nor does it bother or grieve most Christians, not even Bible scholars and translators. The Holy Spirit testifies to me that this is a sure statement.

Denominationalism is a sin that every denominational Christian has to repent and turn away from- Catholic, Protestant, Orthodox, or carnal independent. Scripture says to bring forth fruits meet for repentance. Denominational pastors who were ordained in their denomination also have to repent and renounce their denominational ordination that was imparted to them by men and which has the Babylonian anointing and seal on it that will hinder their ministry for the rest of their lives. They must repent of and renounce it and break all soul-ties with it "in the Name of Christ Jesus". Scripture says that it is the Lord, alone, who ordains, and that a man is "called" "anointed" and "appointed," not by a denomination, not by men, but by the Spirit of God.

What I have been trying to prove to you is that this historic spiritual warfare has ended up descending upon you, personally, through the pages of your Bible. The Sacred Scriptures have been desecrated by the spirits of error, religion, witchcraft and Antichrist, and their goal is to lead you into error in your understanding of God, His salvation, His judgments, His punishments and His plan for the future of every man, woman, child and other beings who ever existed, and in the Word.

If these spirits can obscure the true understanding and magnanimity of God in your eyes, and keep you from truly appreciating Him and the greatness of His salvation, the eventual salvation of ALL, then they will have succeeded in hijacking your understanding of the fullness of God's Word, and at the same time they will have succeeded in stealing His Glory while getting man to cooperate with them. This, dear reader, is a church under witchcraft. That is why the apostasy has come.

There are two churches on earth. The first is completely spiritual and made up of born-again, Spirit-filled and Spirit-led Christians who walk in Christ alone, by grace alone, by faith alone, through the Word, water and Blood of Christ alone, and no doctrines or teachings of men. This church is called the "Philadelphia Church of the Book of Revelation and it is the only church of the seven churches of Asia for which Jesus had no criticism. This Spirit-filled and doctrinally uncompromising body of Christ is called "The Remnant." The church of the Remnant and The Bride is the true church of Christ. The second church on Earth is the counterfeit church, now multi-denominational, originated through Rome with its Babylonian anointing that corrupted all the churches that came out of it through Protestantism, and Orthodoxy, many other Catholic Churches that broke away from it, and the carnal non-denominational breakaway churches devoid of the Spirit. This soulical, religious system is Satanic and it is spiritually Babylonian, many complete with sacraments, rituals, formalisms and ceremonies, all of which can neither save or change man. Again, the Christian faith is not a religion. It is a confession on a Person, and His Name is Christ Jesus, the Son of the Living God. Jesus, Himself, warned us in the Word of God that these days of Apostasy would come at their worst in the end time. Remember His Words "When Satan comes, he becomes an angel of light." (2 Corinthians 11:14) You cannot walk with Christ and dance with the Devil. God is not in it.

The Pharisaic types within the End-time churches are judged by the Word of God, itself, for their spiritual blindness:

Acts 7:51

51 "You, who are stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, always resist the Holy Spirit. As your forefathers did, so do you also" -Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 2:15

15."who both killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove us out. They are not pleasing to God but hostile to all men".

Matthew 21:43

43 for this reason I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and it will be given a people that producing the fruit of it."

I do not judge what the false churches insist on doing and believing. As you can from the scriptures above, the Bible has already judged them and The Spirit is the Author of the Bible.

Finally, I present to you the Comments of Randolph Foster, for your consideration on how the moral turpitude of resisting the Holy Spirit when He brings conviction of the truth, causes some scholars and translators, among others, to resist receiving the truth when evidence is overwhelming that a corrective interpretation of the Word of God has been supported by (1) writing, 2) history and findings and 3) archeological, statements; 4) doctrine of the early church in its first 500 years, and research, and 5) and Biblical exegesis, all as presented in this writing.

This is by no means a new problem in the end-time church. To prove that to you, I offer the convicting remarks of Randolph S. Foster (1820-1903), Bishop of the Methodist episcopal church and former President of Northwestern University, who, in their own struggles to defend the faith against falsehood, faith and apostasy, offered the following justifiable criticism:

Pastor Randolph S. Foster makes some penetrating comments on the moral turpitude of grasping at error once we know the truth:

"The known and willful support or the perpetuation of an error is a crime against humanity and a sin against Him who is the Truth. Grasping at error or defending error when one has reason to suspect it, may be the error of a heart that does not fully love the truth for the sake of the truth.

Vigorously supporting and protecting from scrutiny what we believe when we are aware that its truth is questionable, and reveals a heart that is not completely sincere. We are supposed to be children of the Light and when we are afraid to shine the light on what we believe shows still a love for the darkness.

To stop dead in the tracks of a curable error is criminal; to cherish illusions after we have forced ourselves to suspect them as error is a lowering of our moral nature.

To persist in a belief against evidence, to reject evidence, or to avoid proof... that shows insincerity and lack of moral integrity.

Slavish adherence to inherited traditions, simply on the grounds of their wide acceptance and long continuation, would prohibit the overthrow of error and the acceptance of redeeming truth. If a doctrine cannot bear the light of Scripture and reason. if it is shown to be false and unreasonable under its fiery light, it must consent to shrink and perish with every other error.

One more commentary of Randolph S. Foster's "Studies in States of Theology" :

Although all men have an innate thirst and genuine desire after the truth and a corresponding reluctance toward error, there may exist, strange as that may seem, extreme opposition to the acceptance of certain truths and an absolute hatred of them, because they differ from what we now believe, because changes are required of us that we don't want to make, because they require a confession that we have become confused and have held onto error, and therefore, the mind will not give them just treatment and hardens against them and imposes unjust tests and will not give them the courtesy of just and respectful attention. Prejudices, vicious habits of thought, pride of opinion and denominational beliefs, ignorance, suspicion, intolerance, the following blind of religious and denominational leaders, so becloud and numb the mind that it cannot and will not see their own mistakes, or the truth of others when with a little impartial examination, the truth could be seen.

Clinging to a doctrine that we know to be false is sin. God hates false doctrine, and as Christians, we cannot take the neutral ground respecting the things that God hates. With God, there is no neutral ground”.

I conclude this discussion about the heresy of the doctrine of hell, damnation and eternal judgment and punishment, and I suggest to you to treat the content of this document with an open heart. An open heart is an open Heaven. A closed heart is a closed Heaven. God's covenant with us is a heart to heart affair. Any person will be able to see the evidence that is overwhelming that the earthly church-at-large made up of many denominations or carnal non-denominational churches, are Satanic counterfeits of the Real, because they have gravitated away from the Spirit of Truth, have rejected the Holy Spirit and the Baptism in the Holy Spirit, the individual Pentecost experience needed by every christian believer, and the born-again experience, and have replaced the leading of the Holy Spirit in Spirit-filled revelation and understanding of the Word of God, with the leading of men who reduce the Word of God to something that must be subjected to subjective reductionism governed by mental reserve, thus quenching the anointing of the Holy Spirit. May God's people repent of giving grief to the Holy Spirit. May God have mercy on us all.

There are those who freely use the tongue who could claim that I am a heretic and teach false doctrine. This is not your right or privilege unless you can first isolate each and every point of doctrine, bring me the original verses in the literal Hebrew and Greek manuscripts from which translations are made....it is the translations themselves that are often the source of doctrinal conflicts based on loose or erroneous choices of words that become "the truth" to so many of these people, and show me where I have erred in my interpretations of the literal Hebrew and Greek verses. Do not bring me the Bible translations of men. They cannot be fully trusted. Bring me the original manuscripts from which the translations are made, with the literal meanings of the words identifiable. There are several Literal Hebrew Old Testaments available and Literal Greek New Testaments available on the Internet for download. Then, and only then, is it your privilege to accuse me of heresy. Until then, it is neither his right or privilege,

I am standing amazed that so many of these theologians, Bible scholars and translators cannot digest and acknowledge with a frank humility that the following 3 verses prove that God saves everyone and declare that God saves everyone:

1 Timothy 2:3-4.

3 "For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, 4 through whom He wills that all men should be saved and come to the full knowledge of the truth."

Do you believe that God will have His will?

1 Timothy 4:10 The Bible of the Americas

10 "For this is why we labor and strive, because we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers."

This verse says that Christ is the Savior of believers and also of unbelievers, that is, of everyone.

1 Timothy 6:13 God's Word to All

13 "I command you before God, who gives life to all, and before Jesus Christ, who declared that same truth when he testified before Pontius Pilate,"

Some translations translate the phrase as "who gives Life to "all things". This is a literary license of the translators. The manuscript in the literal Greek from which the translation is made, does not say that. The correct translation is "who gives life to the all (or whole) " and the words "things" does not exist in the literal Greek of the New Testament manuscripts.

These three scriptures alone prove that God saves all. Those who deny this say that it is impossible to be true or correct because Christ must judge sin and condemn those who are unrepentant. Therefore, according to them, sin persuades the power of Christ to use His authority, otherwise. It is saying, "Yes, we know that Christ said he could save everyone, but just look at what he could not do for those who are lost." So they are preach from the pulpits, "The God who said He would but couldn't." They reduce Our Lord and Savior to a God who is partially powerless or unwilling to save all. When will they realize that there is only one way that anyone could ever be condemned to eternal punishment (if this were possible) and the only reason would be that they could not fulfill Christ's expectation of what they should have done or how he expected them to be. This, in turn, would mean that Christ would only save them by their own labors and efforts to make themselves acceptable to Him. This, on the other hand, is salvation by "works" and not salvation by grace through faith. They cannot realize that those who are unrepentant will be saved through the Lake of Fire Judgment, what Malachi called "the Refinery Fire." Philippians 2:10-11 tells us that every knee will bend and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. How can every knee bend and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord if some are not saved and go on to damnation. . Do you think that God wants their confession through force or that He wants it from love? What does your conscience, your spirit and your heart, tell you? If Christ wants to save all but cannot that is an indictment of His power. If He has the power to save all but is not inclined to do so, that is an indictment of His love.(Harvey Turnage) This is what the churches are preaching when they preach hell and damnation doctrine. Truth: God saves ALL in His timing. ( 1 Tim. 4:10; 1 Corinthians 15, ! Cor. 3:15; 1 Tim. 2:6; 1 Cor. 15:22,25; Lk. 20:38; Acts 3:21, to mention a few of the 150 scriptures that testify to the same). It's time to put your denominational and traditional "church" thinking and doctrines aside and become a true, Biblical thinker and not a "saved" humanist. My prayer for all is that the Holy Spirit will break off all the veils and demonic scales from the eyes, ears and hearts of all caught up in those religious "systems" and come to a true knowledge of the Christ of God. The True Christian Faith is not a religion. It is a confession, and that confession is on a Person and His Name is Christ Jesus. The true church is a spiritual entity called, in Scripture, "The Remnant". All man-made denominational churches are not ordained by God, are carnal, most are devoid of the Baptism in the Holy Spirit and are t he work of a Satanic religious spirit. Your presence in them is a testimony to others that you are t here to sanction what they are doing. It is man's righteousness before God. It is not God's standard. God has a standard, and He does not lower His Standard because of man's ignorance. Think of it! There are reported to be 30,000 denominations worldwide, each professing that it has an exclusive and different interpretation of the Word and of the Christian Faith, and that they believe that they are correct, using it as a justification for their existence. So we have 30,000 forms of man's righteousness before God, by which they impose their own forms of righteousness upon their congregants, Man's righteousness before God will not do. It ends up being profane worship. The only righteousness that God will accept is His Righteousness as expounded upon by the Holy Spirit as the Rhema Revelation of God through His Word. It is revealed to us through the born-again experience and Baptism in the Holy Spirit with the power of The Kingdom appropriated through the Gifts of The Spirit. This is what the early church experienced and practiced. Nothing else is acceptable to God. Otherwise, why would the New Testament scriptures warn of vain prayer and vain worship?

You must be in covenant with God to be saved. It is through the born-again experience and the Baptism in the Holy Spirit-two separate and distinct experiences necessary for salvation. (John 3:5). There are three instances where Christ referred to the Baptism in the Holy Spirit: Acts 1:8, Luke 11:10-13; Acts 8:14-17. In all three instances, the people being addressed were already born-again, they already had the indwelling of The Spirit that produces the fruit of The Spirit and is referred to as The Holy Spirit within.” . The baptism in the Holy Spirit produces the gifts of the Spirit and is referred to as “the Holy Spirit upon” (Acts 1:8) The most dreadful words of Christ that a man might hear at the Great White Throne Judgment are Christ’s words, “Depart from me, you accursed, for I never knew you.” You can only know Christ through the New Covenant in His Blood, received by faith on Him alone for your salvation. No rituals, formalisms, processions or ceremonies, worship of dead saints, counterfeit communions of Baal worship (1 Cor.10 and 11) or denominational divisions will do. Only Blood Covenant in Christ will do. Paul said, “ There is no other Name under Heaven by which one may be saved.”

There are two separate and distinct churches on the Earth. One is man-made and is called “Christianity”, the term that denominations call themselves. Carnal non-denominational churches which are the inventions of man are included. The other is the true Spirit-filled, Spirit-led body of Christ called “The Remnant”, by Scripture, a continuation of what the early church was when it became filled with the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Nothing has changed. Every Christian must have their own personal Pentecost experience, even today. That is received through the Baptism in the Holy Spirit which releases 9 gifts of The Spirit for a work of the Kingdom and for power in the walk of faith. That is the Spirit-filled, Spirit-led “Church” on the Earth, and it is purely a spiritual entity of the Holy Spirit. It is a church without walls.

Again, The True Christian Faith is NOT A RELIGION. It is A CONFESSION ON A PERSON and His Name is CHRIST JESUS. Jesus said, if I be. uplifted, I will draw all men unto Me.

Upon these truths, I respectfully stand.
